

Terms of Business for Registered Providers

Effective 1 July 2016

Introduction

This document contains the National Disability Insurance Agency's (NDIA; the Agency) Terms of Business.

The Terms of Business establish protocols and processes that are binding on a Registered Provider of supports in the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS; the Scheme). Failure to comply with the Terms of Business may provide grounds for the NDIA to consider revoking the Registered Provider's registration.

See sections 70(1)(d) and 72(1)(a) of the NDIS Act and paragraphs 3.8 and 5.2(a) of the Rules.

Scheme Objectives

The purpose of the NDIS is to:

- support people with disability to pursue their goals and maximise their independence and social and economic participation
- develop the capacity of people with disability to participate in the community and in employment
- build a sustainable scheme that is based on insurance principles.

By becoming a Registered Provider, the provider agrees to uphold the objectives of the NDIS Act and work with participants to achieve individual outcomes.

Compliance

Registered Providers must act in good faith and in the interests of the participant.

When delivering supports or conducting a business in relation to the delivery of supports, Registered Providers must comply with each of the following:

- the NDIS Act, the Rules, all relevant NDIS guidelines, and all policies issued by the NDIA (as in force from time to time)
- the Registered Provider's own Code of Conduct, Code of Ethics or Service Charter, and
- any Commonwealth, State or Territory laws, and any other requirements, that are applicable to the Registered Provider, including, but not limited to the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), the Australian Consumer Law, and any relevant quality and safeguard laws, including Quality Assurance and Safeguards Working Arrangements and the Guide to Suitability.

In relation to the final dot point, Registered Providers must comply with relevant Commonwealth, State and Territory quality and safeguarding arrangements regardless of whether they are bound by such requirements under the applicable law. The relevant State and/or Territory arrangements will be those that are in force in the jurisdiction(s) in which the Registered Provider delivers supports.

Further information on quality and safeguarding arrangements are available on the NDIS website, including in the Guide to Suitability and Quality and Safeguards Working Arrangements.

Registered Providers must notify the NDIA if they are in breach of any Commonwealth, State or Territory law, including any Commonwealth, State or Territory disability service standards.

Registered Providers must also notify the NDIA if they become subject to any investigation for breach of a Commonwealth, State or Territory law and/or quality and safeguard arrangements.

Business Practice & Service Delivery

Service agreements

Registered Providers should work with a participant to establish a written agreement, in the participant's preferred form of communication, about the expected outcomes and the nature, quality and price of supports to be provided, and any agreed terms and conditions. All supports must be delivered in accordance with that agreement, and the provider must ensure that the participant is regularly provided with, or has access to (for example, through myplace), details of services delivered, and the amount charged for those services. Providers must also abide by relevant consumer laws regarding the provision of receipts and itemised bills.

Service agreements must be consistent with the NDIS's pricing arrangements, guidelines and the requirements of the A New Tax System (Goods and Service Tax) Act 1999 regarding the application of the goods and services tax to its services.

For a participant who is managing the funded supports in their plan (self-managing participant), the service agreement must clearly set out the costs to be paid in relation to the support, when delivery of the support is to be performed and method of payment.

The service agreement must also provide information on complaint handling and dispute resolution processes.

Withdrawal or termination of services by the Registered Provider

Service agreements must include a time frame for the notice of termination of services by the provider. The minimum allowable notice period for this purpose must be no less than 14 days or such longer period as is adequate to enable the participant, his or her nominee, or the Agency to nominate an alternative Registered Provider to deliver those support services. Subject to this minimum period, the time frame may otherwise vary between participants depending on the nature and frequency of the support.

If a Registered Provider intends to withdraw or terminate its services to a participant, notice must be given in accordance with the service agreement.

Registered Providers and participants (except for those that are self-managing) cannot contract out of the Price Guide. Where there are any inconsistencies between the Service Agreement and the Price Guide, the Price Guide prevails.

Insurance

Registered Providers must maintain an adequate level of insurance, including public liability insurance, professional indemnity insurance, and workers compensation insurance when employing workers.

All insurance must be taken out with an insurer:

- recognised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority, or
- regulated by a State/Territory Auditor-General.

Identification as a NDIS Scheme provider and use of the NDIS logo

Registered Providers may identify their NDIS registration by stating 'Registered NDIS Provider'.

The NDIS logo and colour scheme must not be used by a Registered Provider in any publicity material, including use on vehicles, buildings, emails, stationery, business cards etc without the written permission of the Agency.

Conflicts of Interest

Registered Providers must act in the best interests of participants, ensuring that participants are informed, empowered and able to maximise choice and control. A Registered Provider must not (by act or omission) constrain, influence or direct decision making by a person with a disability and/or their family so as to limit that person's access to information, opportunities and choice and control.

The Agency may, from time to time, issue Operational Guidelines and pricing arrangements relating to conflict of interest. These must be adhered to by the Registered Provider.

Actions to manage actual or perceived conflicts

Registered Providers must ensure that they proactively manage perceived and actual conflicts of interest, including through development and maintenance of organisational policies. These policies must specify how the provider will:

- ensure its organisational or ethical values do not impede a participant's right to choice and control
- manage, document and report on individual conflicts as they arise, and
- ensure that advice to a participant about support options (including those not delivered directly by the Provider) is transparent and promotes choice and control.

The Agency may request a copy of these policies at any time.

Registered Providers must also have in place governance arrangements that ensure that all participants are treated equally, and that no participant is given preferential treatment above another in the receipt or provision of supports.

Provision of services

The Agency may issue, from time to time, specific policies on how Registered Providers are to manage conflicts of interest in cases where there is heightened risk to the participant, due to either the vulnerability of the participant, or the scope and magnitude of supports.

The steps that the Agency will require Registered Providers to take to manage these specified conflicts will be contained in the Operational Guidelines or pricing arrangements and guidelines, as updated from time to time. These steps will be proportionate to the risk to a participant, and their ability to exercise informed and empowered choice and control.

Gifts, benefits and commissions

Registered Providers must not accept any offer of money, gifts, services or benefits that would cause them to act in a manner contrary to the interests of the participant. Further, a Registered Provider must have no financial or other personal interest that could directly or indirectly influence or compromise the choice of provider or provision of supports to a participant. This includes the obtaining or offering of any form of commission.

Payments and Pricing

This section applies to the provision of services to all participants, except those that are self-managing.

Registered Providers must adhere to the NDIA Price Guide or any other Agency pricing arrangements and guidelines as in force from time to time.

Registered Providers must declare relevant prices to participants before delivering a service. This includes declaring any notice periods or cancellation terms. Participants are not bound to engage the services of the Registered Provider after their prices have been declared.

Registered Providers can make a payment request once that support has been delivered or provided.

Prices charged to participants must not exceed the price level prescribed for that support in the Pricing Guide.

No other charges are to be added to the cost of the support, including credit card surcharges, or any additional fees including any 'gap' fees, late payment fees or cancellation fees. These requirements apply to all Registered Providers regardless of whether funding for the support is managed by the participant, or managed by a Registered Provider, or managed by the Agency.

A claim for payment is to be submitted within a reasonable time (and no later than 60 days from the end of the Service Booking).

Providers cannot charge cancellation fees, except when specifically provided for in the NDIA Price Guide.

Specialist Disability Accommodation

Registered providers of Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) must comply with the Specialist Disability Accommodation Addendum to the Terms of Business for Registered Providers as annexed to these Terms of Business for Registered Providers, and as amended from time to time.

Maintenance, Records & Audit

Maintaining records.

A Registered Provider must keep full and accurate accounts and financial records of the supports delivered to NDIS participants, along with records of service agreements. The accounts and financial records must be maintained on a regular basis and in such detail that the Agency is able to accurately ascertain the quantity, type and duration of support delivered.

Financial records and accounts are to be retained by a Registered Provider for a period of no less than 5 years from the date of issue.

In addition to these requirements, the retention of all records must also comply with all relevant statutes, regulations, by-laws and requirements of any Commonwealth, State, Territory or Local Authority.

Provision of information

A Registered Provider will be required to recommit to the Terms of Business as in force on an annual basis. The Provider Portal (myplace) will auto-generate a notice to renew their agreement to the Terms of Business. Failure to do so will result in the provider being unable to request payment until compliance is achieved.

If requested by the Agency, a Registered Provider must provide to the Agency within 30 days from the date of the request or within the time specified in the request, any of the following documents:

- a copy of the Registered Provider's most recent financial statements
- a copy of the Registered Provider's most recent insurance certificate, and
- any document that would reasonably be connected with the Registered Provider's provision of supports.

Inspection of records

Registered Providers may be reviewed by the Agency in relation to supports funded for a NDIS participant. Registered Providers must cooperate fully with the Agency officers who are undertaking review activities.

As part of any review, or as otherwise reasonably requested by the Agency in carrying out its rights and obligations under law, a Registered Provider must give the Agency or persons authorised by the Agency ("those permitted") access to premises where accounts and records associated with the provision of services to participants are stored and allow those permitted to inspect and copy all records associated with the provision of services to participants.

A Registered Provider must provide all reasonable assistance requested by those permitted including making available all accounts and records relating to the provision of services to participants at the Registered Provider's registered office or the Registered Provider's principal place of business or other place as agreed.

The rights referred to above are subject to:

- the provision of reasonable prior notice by those permitted (except where those permitted believe there is an actual or apprehended breach of the law); and
- the Registered Provider's reasonable security procedures.

The requirement for access as specified above does not in any way reduce a Registered Provider's responsibility to perform its obligations in accordance with any agreement related to the provision of services to participants.

A Registered Provider must ensure that any subcontract entered into for the purposes of providing services to participants allows those permitted to have access to accounts and records associated with the provision of services to participants.

Where a decision by the NDIA is the subject of a merits review or complaint, the Registered Provider is required to cooperate in providing any documents or other information requested. Pursuant to section 6C of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act), the Registered Provider must provide all documents to the Agency that are relevant to a request made under the FOI Act within 7 days receipt of a request from the Agency.

Fraudulent claims

If a Registered Provider makes a fraudulent claim, the Agency retains the right to commence criminal and/or civil proceedings.

See sections 182 and 183 of the NDIS Act.

Contact details

It is the responsibility of the Registered Provider to maintain accurate contact details with the NDIA. A Registered Provider must advise the NDIA of any changes to the information contained within the application for registration as soon as is practicable.

See paragraph 4.1 of the Rules.

Complaints

Registered Providers are to have clear and accessible complaints handling and dispute resolution processes. Records related to complaints are to be maintained for at least 5 years or as required by law.

Where a Registered Provider provides services that are regulated by Commonwealth, State or Territory law, complaints may also be referred to the relevant complaints body for investigation, including the relevant Ombudsman.

Note that some jurisdictions, have legislation in place for mandatory reporting of certain complaints or incidents to the appropriate complaints body. Providers are responsible for ensuring they remain compliant with the relevant state and territory legislation with respect to complaints and other safeguards.

Interpretation

References to the National Disability Insurance Agency or NDIA in these Terms of Business include references to any name the NDIA goes by from time to time, including the National Disability Insurance Scheme Launch Transition Agency and Disability Care Australia.

To comply with these Terms of Business, Registered Providers must ensure that their officers, employees, agents and subcontractors comply with these Terms of Business.

In these Terms of Business:

- Agency means the National Disability Insurance Scheme Launch Transition Agency
- NDIS Act means the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013
- Records include documents, information and data stored by any means and all copies and extracts of the same
- Registered Provider means a person or entity approved under section 70 of the NDIS Act as a registered provider of supports
- Rules means the National Disability Insurance Scheme (Registered Providers of Support) Rules 2013.

Specialist Disability Accommodation

Addendum to the Terms of Business for Registered Providers

Effective 1 July 2016

Introduction

Registered providers of Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) must comply, and have mechanisms in place to ensure ongoing compliance, with the Terms of Business for Registered Providers and with the terms which relate to SDA set out below. Where any of the terms in this document are inconsistent with the Terms of Business for Registered Providers, the terms in this document apply.

SDA prices

SDA prices are described in the Price Guide for Specialist Disability Accommodation (Price Guide for SDA). SDA prices will only be paid for dwellings that are enrolled as SDA by a registered provider. Payments for SDA can be claimed for each participant that resides at the enrolled dwelling and has SDA in their plan.

Dwelling enrolment

In order to enrol a dwelling as SDA, the registered provider must be legally entitled via ownership or lease to enrol the dwelling as SDA. If the dwelling is leased, the dwelling can only be enrolled by the provider if the dwelling owner has provided written acknowledgment that the property is being enrolled as SDA and has not separately enrolled the property as SDA.

Registered providers can enrol dwellings as SDA through the Provider Portal (myplace). To enrol a dwelling as SDA, registered providers will complete a Dwelling Enrolment Form with the details of the dwelling and attest to the truth and accuracy of the information provided.

The information provided for each dwelling must comply with the criteria and requirements in the Price Guide for SDA.

Each dwelling enrolled as SDA must:

- (a) be a permanent dwelling (e.g. not a mobile home); and
- (b) provide long-term accommodation (e.g. not be solely used for respite, emergency or temporary accommodation); and
- (c) not be a family home (that is, not primarily used as the residence of the participant's family members, other than a partner or dependents, unless the family members also have an NDIS plan that includes SDA); and

- (d) not be provided State or Commonwealth funding for accommodation from a scheme unrelated to disability (e.g. accommodation related aged care funding); and
- (e) not have received funding for home modifications provided by the NDIS; and
- (f) conform with the criteria for either New Builds, Existing Stock or Legacy Stock as detailed in the Specialist Disability Accommodation Price Guide.

Habitability

Before claiming payment for SDA, each dwelling must be suitable for occupation and the property and any alterations must meet all relevant building codes and laws, as evidenced by:

- (a) certification from an appropriately authorised building authority or entity. Acceptable certification would include an occupancy certificate (or equivalent from each jurisdiction) or certification from a building assessor accredited by a local or state government authority; or
- (b) where the property is owned or operated by a state or territory government, a written attestation from a state or territory government department with responsibility for disability or housing.

An annual attestation will be required regarding maintenance to advise that the dwelling is in a good state of repair and is being appropriately maintained, having regard to the safety, security and privacy of residents.

Service agreements

Registered providers of SDA must have a written service agreement with each participant to whom they provide SDA.

In addition to a written service agreement, providers must continue to comply with all laws that apply to the provider in relation to any SDA it provides. Examples of laws that may apply include legislation relating to residential tenancy agreements or to providers of accommodation for people with a disability.

Before claiming payment for SDA, a registered provider must enter into a written service agreement with each participant who is provided with SDA. The registered provider is responsible for the costs of preparing and entering into the written agreement.

A written service agreement may be a standalone document or the terms outlined in this section may be included in a written agreement that also includes other terms and conditions, such as a tenancy or occupancy agreement.

Providers of SDA are required to include all of the terms outlined below in a written service agreement (or agreements) with a participant unless any applicable state or territory legislation prevents the terms from applying:

- (a) specify the rent that must be paid by the participant and the method and timing of making rental payments;
- (b) specify the value and management arrangements in relation to any bond that is required from the participant;

- (c) if applicable, specify any board payments that have been agreed with the participant, what the board payments will cover and the method and timing of making the board payments;
- (d) where requested by the participant, the provider must issue a receipt for any payment made by the participant in relation to the SDA;
- (e) specify the minimum period of notice that will be given by the provider before the provider increases the amount of rent or board (where applicable) payable by the participant;
- (f) specify:
 - (i) the name, telephone number and address of the provider's agent (if any) and the responsibilities of the agent; or
 - (ii) if the provider does not have an agent, the address and telephone number, of the provider;
- (g) require the provider to notify the participant in writing within 5 business days of any change during the agreement of the matters provided for in paragraph (f), unless applicable state or territory law stipulates an alternative notice period;
- (h) specify the commencement date of the agreement, the duration of the agreement, and the manner in which the agreement can be extended;
- (i) specify the circumstances in which the agreement can be terminated by either the participant or the provider;
- (j) require the provider to give the participant a minimum of 90 days' notice before the participant is required to vacate the premises, unless shorter notice is required to address risks of harm to the participant or others;
- (k) require the provider to ensure that the premises are reasonably clean before the commencement of the agreement;
- (l) require the provider to ensure that the property is maintained in a good state of repair and is being appropriately maintained, having regard to the safety, security and privacy of residents;
- (m) explain the process for requesting repairs or maintenance to be undertaken;
- (n) explain the process for making a complaint about the SDA;
- (o) specify any house rules the participant is expected to comply with;
- (p) specify the circumstances in which the provider or the provider's agent is entitled to access the premises, and the notice that must be provided before the provider or the provider's agent enters the premises;
- (q) specify any reasonable responsibilities or obligations of the participant; and
- (r) declare any affiliation with provider(s) of Supported Independent Living services to residents of the SDA.

It is intended that the rights conferred on a participant by the written service agreement referred to above are, to the extent permitted by law, in addition to any rights conferred by any law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory (whether written or unwritten).

Notice of change in SDA circumstances

Registered Providers of SDA must notify the Agency within 5 business days if:

- (a) The participant gives notice to vacate
- (b) The provider gives notice to vacate
- (c) There is an impending vacancy for any other reason.

When providing notification of a vacancy, the Registered Provider must inform the Agency if information about the vacancy can be made available to other participants.

Reasonable rent contribution

Providers of SDA may recover a Reasonable Rent Contribution (RRC) directly from participants residing in an enrolled SDA dwelling in addition to the SDA Price funded by the NDIS.

Providers of SDA must not receive more than the applicable RRC outlined below, except in exceptional circumstances covered under 'Discretionary payments'.

Any RRC to be paid by a participant must not exceed:

For	Maximum RRC
Singles	25 per cent of the basic rate of the Disability Support Pension (DSP) under the Social Security Act 1991 plus any Commonwealth Rent Assistance for which the participant is eligible, before any adjustments for income
Under 21's and couples	25 per cent of the relevant rate of the DSP plus any Commonwealth Rent Assistance for which the participant is eligible, before any adjustments for income

If a participant is not in receipt of the DSP, then the rates outlined in the table above will continue to apply.

Where:

- the basic rate of the DSP is the maximum basic rate within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth that applies to a person who is not under 21 and not a member of a couple (within the meaning of that Act).
- the Commonwealth Rent Assistance is the maximum rent assistance within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth.

Discretionary payments

There are only two exceptional circumstances in which an SDA provider can recover a discretionary contribution directly from a participant (above the RRC):

1. Where the participant chooses to access a higher cost category of SDA than is funded as a reasonable and necessary support, such as a different location or a particular property with preferred features.

2. If the market rental value for a particular property is higher than the SDA price plus RRC. This could occur, for example, due to the particular location or the non-SDA features of the property. Where the SDA provider considers additional discretionary contributions are necessary, they will be required to obtain evidence certified by an appropriately qualified property valuer that the total rent is fair and reasonable given the prevailing prices for dwellings of similar quality in the specific location.

If the provider charges a discretionary contribution for either of the above reasons, the provider must lodge a declaration with the Agency attesting to the rationale for the discretionary contribution, the total amount being charged, and must attest to having obtained any relevant certifications. Declarations can be lodged with the Agency via the SDAregistration@ndis.gov.au.

The Agency will only contribute the SDA Price toward the property, regardless of the market rental value.

Board payments

Any board payments made by the participant to the SDA provider must be specified in the written service agreement, along with what the board payments will cover, and the method and timing of making the board payments (see 'Service agreements' above).

Any board must not exceed 50 per cent of the basic rate of the Disability Support Pension plus 100 per cent of any Energy Supplement received, where:

- the Energy Supplement is the meaning within the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth.

Any board charged at the maximum rate must include at a minimum:

- (a) Meals and consumables
- (b) Utilities that would ordinarily be paid by occupants
- (c) Access to whitegoods, and laundry facilities
- (d) Furniture and furnishings within common areas.

Participants must not be obliged to obtain board from the SDA provider as a condition of residency for any goods or services the participant could reasonably obtain via other means, or for any goods or services the participant does not have access to.

Not preference one participant over another

Registered Providers of SDA, including where the provider has a relative who has SDA in their plan, must not preference one participant over another, in that residents of SDA must be afforded the same treatment, rights, and choices as all other residents.

Relatives of participants who provide SDA

The Gifts, Benefits and Commissions requirements in the Terms of Business for Registered Providers do not apply to a provider who is a relative of the participant. Providers who are relatives of a participant to whom they provide SDA may have a financial or other personal interest directly or indirectly related to the benefit they receive from providing SDA.

Registered Providers who are a relative of the participant must not compromise the participant's choice of provider or the provision of supports to a participant, including because of the relationship.

Records and Audit

Registered Providers must comply with the requirements in the 'Maintenance, Records and Audit' section of the Terms of Business for Registered Providers

In addition, providers of SDA must also give the Agency, or persons authorised by the Agency, access to the premises where SDA is provided as part of a review or as otherwise required by the Agency in carrying out its rights and obligations under any law.

Officers, employees, agents and subcontractors to comply

Registered Providers must have mechanisms in place to ensure that their officers, employees, agents and subcontractors comply, and have mechanisms in place to ensure ongoing compliance, with the Terms of Business for Registered Providers, including the terms that apply to SDA.

Interpretation

The terms and references used in the Terms of Business for Registered Providers for SDA are to be interpreted in accordance with the Interpretation section of the Terms of Business for Registered Providers.
