Introduction

The provision of supports for participants in the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) is subject to regulation by the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) and the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission through the provisions of the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 and its subordinate legislation.

This document, which is called the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits, and its associated documents (see below), set out the pricing arrangements and price limits that the NDIA has determined will apply to the provision of supports for participants in the NDIS. The intent of these documents is to assist participants and providers, both current and prospective, to understand the ways in which price controls work in the NDIS. Price regulation is in place to help ensure that participants receive value for money when they purchase the supports that they need.

Price regulation documents

NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits

This document sets out the general pricing arrangements that apply to all supports in the NDIS and the specific arrangements that apply to individual supports.

NDIS Support Catalogue

This document provides information on the current price limits for each support item and indicates for each price-limited support item the claim types (Travel, non-face-to-face, etc.) that can be used. Requirements specified in the Support Catalogue are part of the pricing arrangements and price limits that the NDIA has determined should apply to NDIS.

The NDIA sometimes deactivates support items. Deactivated support items cannot be used. Before a support is deactivated it is converted into a Legacy Support for a period of time. These legacy supports are listed in a separate tab of the Support Catalogue for the information of providers and participants. Providers and participants should not create new service bookings for legacy supports. In general, claims for legacy supports should only continue to be made against a service booking if that service booking was in existence at the time the support was turned into a legacy support.

Addenda to the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits

These documents allow the NDIA to respond to changing market conditions in an efficient manner. They are used to make temporary changes to some of the support items and arrangements listed in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. Each Addendum is not a stand-alone document and must be read in conjunction with the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. Requirements specified in Addenda are part of the pricing arrangements and price limits that the NDIA has determined will apply to NDIS.

NDIS Pricing Arrangements for Specialist Disability Accommodation

This document sets out the specific pricing arrangements that apply for Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA). Providers of SDA supports are also subject to the general arrangements set out in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

NDIS Assistive Technology, Home Modifications and Consumables Code Guide

This document gives further information on the specific pricing arrangements that apply for these types of support. Providers of these supports are also subject to the general arrangements set out in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

Priority of interpretation

To the extent of any inconsistency between provisions of the various documents that set out the pricing arrangements for the NDIS, priority will be accorded in descending order to:

- (a) the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits;
- (b) the NDIS Support Catalogue;
- (c) any Addenda to the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits;
- (d) the NDIS Pricing Arrangements for Specialist Disability Accommodation; and
- (e) the NDIS Assistive Technology, Home Modifications and Consumables Code Guide.

The provision in the higher ranked document, to the extent of any inconsistency, will prevail.

These documents are updated from time to time and are published on the NDIS website.

Participants and providers should always refer to the website version of a document when they are seeking to understand pricing arrangements that apply in the NDIS.

Applicability of price limits

Supports can be subject to price regulation in different ways:

- Price controlled supports should only be claimed by a provider from a participant's plan when they are reasonable and necessary to meet a participant's needs and are subject to the conditions set out in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.
- Quotable supports should only be claimed by a provider from a participant's plan if the support is specifically included in the participant's plan. They are also subject to the conditions set out in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.
- Some supports are not subject to price control. These supports should only be claimed by a provider from a participant's plan when they are reasonable and necessary to meet a participant's needs. They are subject to the other conditions set out in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

In most cases, support items subject to price limits have a single national price limit. In some cases, there are different price limits for different jurisdictions. Higher price limits can apply in remote and very remote areas.

The pricing arrangements do not only set the price limits for supports. They also specify when and how supports can be claimed, including what has to have happened before payment for a support can be claimed.

Agency managed participants

A provider of a support that is agency managed in a participant's plan:

- must be a Registered Provider with the NDIS;
- must declare relevant prices and conditions to participants before delivering a service, including any notice periods or cancellation terms; and

- must adhere to the arrangements prescribed in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits, including ensuring that their prices do not exceed the price limits.

The NDIA does not set the prices that providers charge participants. Each provider must agree the price for each support with each participant, subject to the price limits and pricing arrangements that are imposed by the NDIA.

Providers should not indicate in any way to participants that the prices that they charge are set by the NDIA.

In general, providers should not charge NDIS participants more for a support than they would charge anyone else for the same support. If the price a provider offers to an NDIS participant is different to that which they would offer to a person who was not an NDIA participant, then the provider should ensure that the participant is aware of this difference and the reasons for the difference.

Providers are required to acknowledge compliance with the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and its associated documents when submitting a payment request through the myplace Provider Portal.

Plan managed participants

Plan managers must adhere to the arrangements prescribed in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits, including ensuring that the prices charged by providers do not exceed the price limits. This rule applies regardless of whether the participant purchases the support from a registered or an unregistered provider.

Plan managers must provide the Australian Business Number (ABN) of the service provider who delivers the support for all payment requests. The NDIA will only accept payment requests without an ABN if the service provider is exempt from quoting an ABN under Australian Taxation Office (ATO) rules. Exempt providers must complete the ATO's Statement by a Supplier form. Plan managers are expected to keep a copy of the completed form.

Plan managers must always ensure that a valid tax invoice is included with relevant information about the goods/services purchased for all payment requests. A plan manager may be liable to pay back any amount not spent in accordance with a participant's plan.

Plan managers are required to acknowledge compliance with the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and its associated documents when submitting payment requests through the myplace Provider Portal.

Self-managing participants

Self-managing participants can use registered or unregistered providers and are not subject to the price limits or other pricing arrangements set out in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and its associated documents.

Support Purposes, Support Categories and Support Items

This section describes the way that the NDIS categorises disability supports. These categories can be relevant to rules for participants about how they can spend their support budgets, and for providers when seeking payment for delivered supports.

Support Items

Each support that a provider supplies to a participant can be classified as one of the support items listed in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and in the NDIS Support Catalogue.

Providers should claim payments against the support item that aligns to the service they have delivered.

Each support item has a unique reference number, according to the following structure:

For example:

01_013_0107_1_1 - Assistance with Self-Care Activities - Standard - Saturday

| Support Category | Sequence Number | Registration Group | Outcome Domain | Support Purpose |
|------------------|-----------------|--------------------|----------------|-----------------|
| 01 | 013 | 0107 | 1 | 1 |

Support Purposes

NDIS participant budgets are allocated to three separate support purposes:

1. CORE - Supports that enable participants to complete activities of daily living. Participant budgets often have a lot of flexibility to choose specific supports with their core support budgets, but cannot reallocate this funding for other support purposes (i.e. capital or capacity building supports).
2. CAPITAL - Investments, such as assistive technologies - equipment, home or vehicle modifications, or for Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA). Participant budgets for this support purpose are restricted to specific items identified in the participant's plan.
3. CAPACITY BUILDING - Supports that enable a participant to build their independence and skills.

Support Categories aligned to the NDIS Outcomes Framework

Participant budgets are allocated at a support category level and must be used to achieve the goals set out in the participant's plan. Support categories are aligned with the NDIS Outcomes Framework, which has been developed to measure goal attainment for individual participants and overall performance of the Scheme. There are eight outcome domains in the Framework, which help participants think about goals in different areas of their life and assist planners explore where supports in these areas already exist and where further supports are required. These domains are:

- | | |
|-------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1. Daily Living | 5. Work |
| 2. Home | 6. Social and Community Participation |
| 3. Health and Wellbeing | 7. Relationships |
| 4. Lifelong Learning | 8. Choice and Control |

NDIS providers should be aware that all supports and services for NDIS participants must contribute to the achievement of their individual goals as outlined in the participant's plan. Support purpose categories are designed to align with the Outcomes Framework and the 15 support categories. This helps participants choose supports that help them achieve their goals, and providers to understand how the supports they provide contribute to the participant's goals.

The following table shows the links between support purpose types, domains in the Outcomes Framework and support categories.

| PURPOSE | OUTCOME DOMAIN | SUPPORT CATEGORY |
|--------------------------|---|---|
| CORE | Daily Living Daily Living Daily Living Social and Community Participation Work | 01 Assistance with Daily Life 02 Transport 03 Consumables 04 Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation 04 Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation |

Registration Groups

Each support item specifies the Registration Group for which a Registered Provider who delivers the support must be registered with the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission. There are currently 36 Registration Groups.

Units of Measure

The NDIS payment system includes units of measure for each support item as follows:

| | | |
|--------|---------|----------|
| • Each | • Hour | • Daily |
| • Week | • Month | • Annual |

Providers should ensure that they record claims against a support item using the appropriate unit of measure for the support item.

General Claiming Rules

Registered Providers can only make a claim for payment for a support once they have delivered or provided that support. Where price limits apply to a support, prices charged to participants must not exceed the price limit prescribed for that support in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. Providers are responsible for ensuring that the claims for payment that they make accurately reflect the supports delivered, including the frequency, volume and type of support. Claims need to be made against the specific support item that aligns to the service delivered. Falsifying claims for payment is a serious compliance issue and may result in action against the provider. Providers are also required to keep accurate records of claims, which are subject to audit.

Service Agreements

A Service Agreement is a formal agreement between a participant and provider. They help to ensure there is a shared understanding of:

- expectations of what supports will be delivered and how they will be delivered; and
- the respective responsibilities and obligations of the provider and the participant and how to resolve any problems that may arise.

Service Agreements should be simple and set out how and when supports will be delivered. They can include information such as:

- what supports and services the provider has agreed to provide;
- the prices of those supports and services;
- how, when and where the supports and services are to be provided;
- the duration of the Service Agreement;
- when and how the Service Agreement will be reviewed;
- how the participant or the provider may change or end the Service Agreement;
- how any problems or issues that may arise will be handled;
- participant responsibilities under the Service Agreement; and
- provider responsibilities under the Service Agreement.

Providers should not seek to impose conditions on participants through Service Agreements that are not in line with those set out in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and its associated documents.

Service Bookings

Service bookings are used to set aside funding in a participant's plan for an NDIS registered provider for a support or service they will deliver. Service bookings can be made by the participant or provider in the myplace portal. Providers claim payments against the service booking in the myplace portal. Each service booking sets out the specific supports or support category delivered and period of service delivery within the current participant plan dates. Service bookings are not the same as service agreements.

The Agency recommends that service bookings should be created at the category level, where possible. This allows providers and participants to negotiate or access supports on a more flexible basis, especially for on-the-spot assessments or less predictable support needs. A provider must have a service booking in place to make a payment claim in the Portal. Further information can be found on the NDIS website.

Claiming for support items that are subject to quotation

Providers can only claim for a support item that is subject to quotation from a participant's plan if they provided a quotation to the NDIA for the support item and it is a stated item in the participant's plan. When the NDIA approves a quote, then it will create a service booking for the support item that the provider can use for claiming purposes.

Claiming for support items that have a price limit

Where a support item has a price limit then the provider cannot agree a price for the support with the participant that is greater than the price limit. Claims should be made in the units specified for the item and at the agreed unit price, which must not be higher than the applicable price limit.

Example – Claiming for a support subject to price limit

A provider has agreed to deliver a support to a participant at an hourly rate of $50.

If the provider provides support for 30 minutes then they should make a claim for 0.5 hours at the agreed unit price of $50. They should not claim for 1 unit at $25.

Claiming for support items that do not have a price limit

Where a support item does not have a price limit then the provider and participant should agree on the reasonable price for the support. If necessary, they should also agree on the billing schedule for the support. For example, they might agree that a support should be claimed weekly. These claims are subject to the general claiming rules, including that, in general, supports can only be claimed for after they have been delivered.

The provider should claim for that item by reference to the “notional unit price” that is set out in the NDIS Support Catalogue or the NDIS Assistive Technology, Home Modifications and Consumables Code Guide.

Example – Claiming for Low Cost AT

A Provider has agreed to deliver a text player to a participant at a cost of $530.

The relevant support item (03_220300911_0113_1_1: Low Cost AT for Vision Related AT) is not subject to a price limit but has a “notional” unit price of $1.00.

The provider would submit a payment request for 530 units at $1.00 a unit for a total amount of $530.

Example – Claiming for Activity Based Transport

The activity based transport support items are not subject to price limits but have a “notional” unit limit of $1.00.

If, as in the above example, the non-labour costs of the activity based transport was $21.50 (in this example against the support item 04_590_0125_6_1) then the provider would submit a payment request for 21.5 units at $1.00 a unit for a total cost of $21.50.

Claiming for Time of Day and Day of Week

In determining which price limit is applicable to a support, the important consideration is when the support is provided to the participant, not the shift of the worker used to deliver that support as determined by the applicable Industry Award or Enterprise Bargaining Agreement.

For NDIS claiming purposes, the provider must first determine the day of the week on which the support was provided on and then the time of the day during which the support was delivered. (Note: weekday means Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday).

- A Night-time Sleepover Support is any support to a participant delivered on a weekday, a Saturday, a Sunday or a Public Holiday that:
 - commences before midnight on a day and finishes after midnight on that day; and
 - is for a continuous period of eight (8) hours or more; and
 - the worker is allowed to sleep when they are not providing support.
- A Public Holiday Support is any support to a participant that starts at or after midnight on the night prior to a Public Holiday and ends before or at midnight of that Public Holiday (unless it is a Night-time Sleepover Support).
- A Saturday Support is any support to a participant that starts at or after midnight on the night prior to a Saturday and ends before or at midnight of that Saturday (unless it is a Public Holiday or Night-time Sleepover Support).
- A Sunday Support is any support to a participant that starts at or after midnight on the night prior to a Sunday and ends before or at midnight of that Sunday (unless it is a Public Holiday or Night-time Sleepover Support).
- A Weekday Support is any other support, and is either:
 - A Weekday Daytime Support is any support to a participant that starts at or after 6:00 am and ends before or at 8:00 pm on a single weekday (unless it is a Public Holiday or Night-time Sleepover Support).
 - A Weekday Evening Support is any support to a participant that starts after 8:00 pm and finishes at or before midnight on a single weekday (unless it is a Public Holiday or Night-time Sleepover Support).
 - A Weekday Night Support is any support to a participant that commences at or before midnight on a weekday and finishes after midnight on that weekday, or commences before 6:00 am on a weekday and finishes on that weekday (unless it is a Public Holiday, Saturday, Sunday or Night-time Sleepover Support).

If a support to a participant does not meet one of the above criteria then it needs to be billed as two or more separate supports. An exception to this general rule occurs when a particular support crosses a shift boundary and the same worker delivers the entire support. In this case, the higher of the relevant price limits applies to the entire support and the provider should make the claim against the relevant support item. Providers are required to discuss this billing arrangement with the participant.

Night-Time Sleepover supports

This support provides a participant with assistance with, or supervision of, personal tasks of daily life where overnight support is needed, but the caregiver can sleep when not required to provide support. This support applies to any day of the week and on public holidays. This support item includes up to two hours of active supports provided to the participant for the duration of the period. Providers may claim for the third or additional hour at Saturday rates on weekdays, or at applicable rates on other days (Saturday, Sunday or Public Holidays).

Claiming for Telehealth Services

Telehealth can be used to deliver direct supports where appropriate and with the agreement of the participant.

Providers can only claim Telehealth Services where the following conditions are met:

- the delivery of the support by telehealth is appropriate; and
- the proposed charges for the activities comply with this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and with the Service Agreement with the participant; and
- the activities are part of delivering a specific disability support item to that participant (rather than a general activity such as enrolment, administration or staff rostering); and
- the provider explains the activities to the participant, including why they represent the best use of the participant's funds (that is, the provider explains the value of these activities to the participant); and
- the provider has the agreement of the participant in advance (that is, the service agreement between the participant and provider specifies that Telehealth services can be claimed).

Providers have a duty of care to their participants to ensure they are providing the same standard of care through video technology as in a clinical setting.

Claims for Telehealth Services should be made using the relevant support item as indicated in NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits by using the "Telehealth Services" option in the myplace portal.

Claiming for non-direct services

Non-Face-to-Face Support Provision

Providers can only claim from a participant's plan for the Non-Face-to-Face delivery of a support item if all of the following conditions are met:

- this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits indicates that providers can claim for Non-Face-to-Face Support Provision in respect of that support item; and
- the proposed charges for the activities comply with this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and with the Service Agreement with the participant; and
- the activities are part of delivering a specific disability support item to that participant (rather than a general activity such as enrolment, administration or staff rostering); and
- the provider explains the activities to the participant, including why they represent the best use of the participant's funds (that is, the provider explains the value of these activities to the participant); and
- the provider has the agreement of the participant in advance (that is, the service agreement between the participant and provider specifies that Non-Face-to-Face supports can be claimed).

For example, the Assistance with Self Care support items are described as covering activities "Assisting with, and/or supervising, personal tasks of daily life to develop skills of the participant to live as autonomously as possible". Therefore, time spent on Non-Face-to-Face activities that assist the participant - for example, writing reports for co-workers and other providers about the client's progress with skill development - could be claimed against this support item.

The costs of training and upskilling staff, and of supervision, are included in the base price limits for supports and are not considered billable Non-Face-to-Face supports. However, research undertaken by a capacity-building provider specifically linked to the needs of a participant and to the achievement of the participant's goals may be billable as a Non-Face-to-Face support with the participant's prior agreement.

Service agreements with each client can 'pre-authorise' these activities, but providers should only claim a support item from a participant's plan if they have completed activities that are part of the support for that participant. Charging a fee that is not linked to completed activities is not permitted.

Time spent on administration, such as the processing of NDIS payment claims for all clients, should not be claimed from a participant's budget as a Non-Face-to-Face support. The NDIS price limits include an allowance for overheads, including the costs of administration tasks. Examples of administrative activities that are covered by the overhead component of the support price limits and that should not be billed as Non-Face-to-Face supports include, but are not limited to:

- pre-engagement visits;
- developing and agreeing Service Agreements;
- entering or amending participant details into system;
- making participant service time changes;
- staff / participant travel monitoring and adjustment;
- ongoing NDIS plan monitoring;
- completing a quoting tool; and
- making service bookings and payment claims.

In working out the fee for Non-Face-to-Face supports, it is not appropriate to charge all participants an average additional fee. The additional fee must be worked out in each case and related specifically to the Non-Face-to-Face supports delivered to the particular participant. This is not to say that the same additional fee might not end up being charged to a number of participants, but it must be worked out separately.

Claims for Non-Face-to-Face supports are made using the relevant support item, using the "Non-Face-to-Face" option in the myplace portal.

Provider Travel

Providers can only claim from a participant's plan for travel costs in respect of the delivery of a support item if all of the following conditions are met:

- this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits indicates that providers can claim for Provider Travel in respect of that support item; and
- the proposed charges for the activities comply with this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and
- the activities are part of delivering a specific disability support item to that participant; and
- the support is delivered directly (face-to-face) to the participant; and
- the provider explains the activities to the participant, including why they represent the best use of the participant's funds (that is, the provider explains the value of these activities to the participant); and

- the provider has the agreement of the participant in advance (that is, the Agreement between the participant and provider should specify the travel costs that can be claimed); and
- the provider is required to pay the worker delivering the support for the time they spent travelling as a result of the agreement under which the worker is employed; or the provider is a sole trader and is travelling from their usual place of work to or from the participant, or between participants.

Provider Travel - Labour Costs (Time)

Where a provider claims for travel time in respect of a support then the maximum amount of travel time that they can claim for the time spent travelling to each participant (for each eligible worker) is 30 minutes in MMM1-3 areas and 60 minutes in MMM4-5 areas. (Note the relevant MMM classification is the classification of the area where the participant is when the support is delivered.)

In addition to the above travel, capacity-building providers who are permitted to claim for provider travel in respect of a support item can also claim for the time spent travelling from the last participant to their usual place of work. The maximum amount of travel time that they can claim for the time spent on return travel (for each eligible worker) is 30 minutes in MMM1-3 areas and 60 minutes in MMM4-5 areas. (Note the relevant MMM classification is the classification of the area where the participant is when the support is delivered.)

Where a worker is travelling to provide services to more than one participant in a 'region' then the provider should apportion that travel time (including the return journey where applicable) between the participants, with the agreement of each participant in advance.

Claims for travel in respect of a support must be made separately to the claim for the primary support (the support for which the travel is necessary) using the same line item as the primary support and the "Provider Travel" option in the myplace portal. When claiming for travel in respect of a support, a provider should use the same hourly rate as they have agreed with the participant for the primary support (or a lower hourly rate for the travel if that is what they have agreed with the participant) in calculating the claimable travel cost.

Provider Travel - Non-Labour Costs

If a provider incurs costs, in addition to the cost of a worker's time, when travelling to deliver Face-to-Face supports to a participant (such as road tolls, parking fees and the running costs of the vehicle), they may negotiate with the participant for them to make a reasonable contribution towards these costs. The NDIA considers that the following would be reasonable contributions:

- up to $0.85 a kilometre for a vehicle that is not modified for accessibility; and
- other forms of transport or associated costs up to the full amount, such as road tolls, parking, public transport fares.

Claims can only be made for the non-labour costs associated with provider travel in respect of a support where the rules governing provider travel allow a claim for provider travel time to be made.

Claims for the non-labour costs of provider travel in respect of a support must be made separately to the claim for the primary support (the support for which the travel is necessary) and for the travel time associated with the provider travel. The non-labour costs should be claimed against the relevant "Provider Travel - non-labour costs" support item as indicated in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

Support items

These support items can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. Where a worker is travelling to provide services to more than one participant in a 'region' then the provider should apportion the non-labour travel costs (including the return journey where applicable) between the participants, with the agreement of each participant in advance.

These support items are not subject to price limits. See page 15 for further information on how to claim for support items that are not subject to a price limit.

Example - Provider Travel - Core support - Single Participant - MMM 1-3

A support worker employed by a provider travels for 25 minutes (30 kilometres) to a participant who is located in zone 3 of the Modified Monash Model. They provide two hours of support to the participant. They then spend 25 minutes (30 kilometres) returning to their usual place of business.

The provider and participant have agreed an hourly rate of $50.00, which is below the price limit for this item. They have also agreed that the provider can claim for travel time and for the non-labour costs associated with that travel (at $0.78 per allowable kilometre).

The provider is entitled to apply the 30-minute time-cap against the 25 minutes of travel to the participant. They are not entitled to claim for the time spent travelling back to their usual place of business; even though some of that time could fit within the 30-minute time-cap. In total, 25 minutes of travel can be claimed.

Because the worker uses his or her own car to drive to the participant, the provider has agreed to pay the worker $0.78 per kilometre travelled. The provider can also seek reimbursement for this cost from the participant's plan under the Service Agreement.

The provider's claim for this support is in three parts, which should be shown separately on their invoice to the participant and claimed for separately in the system.

- $100.00 for the two hours of support against support item 01_301_0104_1_1;
- $20.83 for the 25 minutes travel to the participant against support item 01_301_0104_1_1 using the drop down field "Provider Travel"; and
- $23.40 for the 30 kilometres travel to the participant against support item 01_799_0104_1_1.

Example - Core support - Multiple Participants - MMM 4-5

A Provider travels for 65 minutes (60 kilometres) to Participant A who is located in zone 4 of the Modified Monash Model. They then provide two hours of the support to participant A. The provider then travels 25 minutes (50 kilometres) to Participant B, who is also located in zone 4. They deliver one hour of support to participant B. They then spend 45 minutes (40 kilometres) returning to their usual place of business.

The provider and participants have agreed an hourly rate of $50.00. They have also agreed that the provider can charge for their travel time and for the non-labour costs associated with that travel (at $0.78 per allowable kilometre) and that the provider can apportion the costs of the travel between the participants.

The provider is entitled to apply the 2x60 minute time-cap against the 65 minutes of travel to participant A and the 25 minutes of travel to participant B. They are not entitled to claim for the time spent travelling back to their usual place of business, even though some of that time could fit under the 2x60 minute time-cap. In total, 90 minutes of travel (65 + 25) can be claimed. Because the worker uses his or her own car to drive to the participant, the provider has agreed to pay the worker $0.78 per kilometre travelled. The provider can also seek reimbursement for this cost from the participants' plans under the Service Agreement. However, they are only entitled to claim for 110 kilometres, as the return travel to their usual place of business after the last participant is not claimable.

The provider's claim for these supports is in three parts for each participant, which should be shown separately on their invoice to the participant and claimed for separately.

Participant A

- $100.00 for the two hours of support against support item 01_301_0104_1_1;
- $37.50 for the 45 minutes travel to and between participants against support item 01_301_0104_1_1 using the drop down field "Provider Travel"; and
- $42.90 for 55 kilometres travel to and between participants against support item 01_799_0104_1_1.

Participant B

- $50.00 for the one hour of support against support item 01_301_0104_1_1;
- $37.50 for the 45 minutes travel to and between participants against support item 01_301_0104_1_1 using the drop down field "Provider Travel"; and
- $42.90 for 55 kilometres travel to and between participants against support item 01_799_0104_1_1.

Example - Capacity building support -Single Participant - MMM 1-3

A Provider travels for 35 minutes (40 kilometres) to a participant who is located in zone 3 of the Modified Monash Model. They provide two hours of support to the participant. They then spend 25 minutes (40 kilometres) returning to their usual place of business.

The provider and participant have agreed an hourly rate of $190.00. They have also agreed that the provider can charge for their travel time and for the non-labour costs associated with that travel (at $0.78 per allowable kilometre).

The provider is entitled to apply the 30-minute time-cap against the 35 minutes of travel to the participant. They are also entitled to claim for the time spent travelling back to their usual place of business by applying the 30-minute time-cap against the 25 minutes of return travel. In total, 55 minutes of travel can be claimed.

Because the provider uses his or her own car to drive to the participant, they are entitled to claim for the non-labour costs associated with this travel under the Service Agreement between the provider and the participant indicates that the provider can seek reimbursement for this cost from the participant's plan. Because the travel time for both the journey to and from the participant are claimable in this case, the non-labour costs associated with both periods of travel can also be claimed under the Service Agreement.

The provider's claim for these supports is in three parts, which should be shown separately on their invoice to the participant and claimed for separately.

- $380.00 for the two hours of support against support item 15_056_0128_1_3
- $174.17 for the 55 minutes travel to the participant against support item 15_056_0128_1_3 using the drop down field "Provider Travel"; and
- $62.40 for the 80 kilometres travel to and from the participant against support item 15_799_0128_1_3.

Provider Travel (in remote and very remote areas)

In remote areas, capacity-building providers may enter specific arrangements with participants to cover travel costs, up to the relevant hourly rate for the support item. Providers should assist participants to minimise the travel costs that they need to pay (for example, by co-ordinating appointments with other participants in an area, so that travel costs can be shared between participants, or by considering the delivery of the support by telehealth where appropriate).

Short Notice Cancellations

Where a provider has a Short Notice Cancellation (or no show), they are able to claim 100% of the agreed fee associated with the activity from the participant's plan, subject to this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and the terms of the service agreement with the participant.

A cancellation is a short notice cancellation if the participant:

- does not show up for a scheduled support within a reasonable time, or is not present at the agreed place and within a reasonable time when the provider is travelling to deliver the support; or
- has given less than two (2) clear business days' notice for a support that meets both of the following conditions:
 - the support is less than 8 hours continuous duration; AND
 - the agreed total price for the support is less than $1000; or
- has given less than five (5) clear business days' notice for any other support.

Providers can only claim from a participant's plan for a Short Notice Cancellation of the delivery of a support item to the participant if all of the following conditions are met:

- this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits indicates that providers can claim for Short Notice Cancellations in respect of that support item; and
- the proposed charges for the activities comply with this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits; and

- the provider has the agreement of the participant in advance (that is, the service agreement between the participant and provider should specify that Short Notice Cancellations can be claimed); and
- the provider was not able to find alternative billable work for the relevant worker and are required to pay the worker for the time that would have been spent providing the support.

Claims for a short notice cancellation should be made using the same support item as would have been used if the support had been delivered, using the “Cancellation” option in the myplace portal.

There is no hard limit on the number of short notice cancellations (or no shows) for which a provider can claim in respect of a participant. However, providers have a duty of care to their participants and if a participant has an unusual number of cancellations then the provider should seek to understand why they are occurring. The NDIA will monitor claims for cancellations and may contact providers who have a participant with an unusual number of cancellations.

Example - Short Notice Cancellation

A one-hour support is scheduled for 10 am on a Tuesday following a Public Holiday Monday.

The participant cancels the support after 10 am on the Thursday before the Public Holiday Monday and the provider is not able to find alternative billable work for the relevant worker and is required to pay the worker for the time that would have been spent providing the support.

If the Service Agreement between the participant and the provider has included cancellation arrangements then the provider can claim for this support. The claim should be made at the agreed rate for the service against the relevant support item using the drop down field “Cancellation”.

NDIA Requested Reports

Providers can only claim from a participant’s plan for a NDIA Requested Report if all of the following conditions are met:

- the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits indicates that providers can claim for NDIA Requested Reports in respect of that support item; and
- the proposed charges for the activities comply with the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and
- the provider has the agreement of the participant in advance (i.e. the service agreement with the participant should specify that NDIA Requested Reports can be claimed); and
- the report is requested by the NDIA.

A report is considered to have been requested by the NDIA if it is a report that is required at the commencement of a plan that outlines plan objectives and goals, or at plan review that measures functional outcomes against the originally stipulated goals, or that makes recommendations for ongoing needs (informal, community, mainstream or funded supports). Providers may also claim for other NDIA-requested therapy report that is stipulated as being required in a participant’s plan.

Claims for NDIS requested reports should be made using the relevant support item, using the “NDIA Report” option in the myplace portal.

Claiming for Activity Based Transport

Activity Based Transport - Social, Economic and Community Participation Supports

Providers of supports in the Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category (“community participation supports”) can, at the request of a participant, transport a participant to, or from, or as part of, a community participation support. In these cases, the provider is entitled, with the agreement of the participant, to bill the participant's plan for the time that support workers spend providing the transport support (as part of the community participation support). They are also entitled to bill for any non-labour costs associated with transporting the participant (again, as part of the community participation support).

The worker's time can be claimed at the agreed hourly rate for the relevant support item for the total time the worker provides support to one or more participants, including time spent accompanying and/or transporting the participant. Where a provider is transporting two or more participants on the same trip, the worker's time should be apportioned amongst participants. This claim should be made using the relevant community participation support item and against the participant's core budget.

If a provider incurs costs, in addition to the cost of a worker's time, when accompanying and/or transporting participants in the community (such as road tolls, parking fees and the running costs of the vehicle), they may negotiate with the participant for them to make a reasonable contribution towards these costs. The NDIA considers that the following would be reasonable contributions:

- up to $0.85 a kilometre for a vehicle that is not modified for accessibility
- up to $2.40 a kilometre for a vehicle that is modified for accessibility or a bus
- other forms of transport or associated costs up to the full amount, such as road tolls, parking, and public transport fares.

Support items

These non-labour costs should be claimed against the relevant activity based transport support item in the community participation support category. These support items can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. Where a provider is transporting two or more participants on the same trip, these additional costs should be apportioned amongst participants, with the agreement of each participant in advance.

These support items are not subject to price limits. See page 15 for further information on how to claim for support items that are not subject to a price limit.

Support items

These support items can be delivered to individual participants or groups of participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. Where a provider is transporting two or more participants on the same trip, these additional costs should be apportioned amongst participants, with the agreement of each participant in advance.

These support items are not subject to price limits. See page 15 for further information on how to claim for support items that are not subject to a price limit.

Example - Activity Based Transport

A Provider has agreed to deliver a support in the Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category to a participant and the participant has requested that the provider transport the participant from their home to a local swimming pool and back again, as part of that support.

The transport by a non-disability modified vehicle takes 25 minutes to arrive at the swimming pool, including the time to assist the participant to and from the vehicle and getting them set up to participate in the activity. The support worker accompanies the participant in the vehicle. They then provide 40 minutes of support to the participant at the pool. Afterwards, they spend 20 minutes returning the participant to their home by the same vehicle. The pool is 10 kilometres from the participant's home.

The provider and participant have agreed an hourly rate of $50.00, which is below the price limit for this item. This amount also applies to the support worker's time when transporting participants.

The provider and participant have also agreed for the provider to claim for the activity based transport costs, which in this case they have agreed are the support worker's car park fee ($4.50) and vehicle running costs at a rate as agreed with the participant of $0.85 a kilometre (2x10 km) against support line item

The provider's claim for the support will be claimed in the Portal as:

- $70.83 for the 40 minutes of direct support at the swimming pool and 45 minutes transport time against support item 04_104_0125_6_1;
- $21.50 for the non-labour costs of the activity based transport against the support item 04_590_0125_6_1.

Note: The provider may also be able to make a claim for the time taken by the worker to travel to the participant before the support commences (see the discussion of Provider Travel above).

Regional, Remote and Very Remote Areas

Different pricing arrangements can apply depending on whether a support is delivered in a regional remote or very remote area.

Modified Monash Model

To determine whether a support is being delivered in a regional remote or very remote area the NDIA uses a modification of the Modified Monash Model (MMM). From the 24 October 2020, the 2019 version of the MMM will be used by the NDIS.

The MMM determines regional, remote and very remote areas using a scale based on population size and locality (see Table below).

|-------------------------|-----------|-----|--|
| Metropolitan | MMM 1 | 1 | All areas categorised as Major Cities of Australia in the Australian Bureau of Statistics Australian Statistical Geography Standard - Remoteness Areas (ASGS-RA) framework (see the ABS website). |
| Regional Centres | MMM 2-3 | 2 | Areas categorised as Inner Regional Australia or Outer Regional Australia in the ASGS-RA that are in, or within 20km road distance, of a town with population >50,000. |
| | | 3 | Areas categorised as Inner Regional Australia or Outer Regional Australia in the ASGS-RA that are not in MM 2 and are in, or within 15km road distance, of a town with population between 15,000 and 50,000. |
| Regional Areas | MMM 4-5 | 4 | Areas categorised as Inner Regional Australia or Outer Regional Australia in the ASGS-RA that are not in MM 2 or MM 3, and are in, or within 10km road distance, of a town with population between 5,000 and 15,000. |
| | | 5 | All other areas categorised as Inner Regional Australia or Outer Regional Australia in the ASGS-RA, except areas on islands that have a population of less than 1,000 and are not classified as MM2, MM3 or MM4. |
| Remote | MMM 6 | 6 | All areas categorised as Remote Australia in the ASGS-RA, except areas on a populated island that is separated from the mainland and is more than 5km offshore; and Areas categorised as Inner Regional Australia or Outer Regional Australia in the ASGS-RA that are islands that have a population of less than 1,000 and are not otherwise classified. |
| Very Remote | MMM 7 | 7 | All other areas - that being areas classified as Very Remote Australia in the ASGS-RA, and areas on a populated island that is separated from the mainland in the ABS geography and is more than 5km offshore. |

Providers and participants can determine the MMM rating of a location using the Health Workforce Locator tool on the Department of Health's website.

Isolated Towns Modification

The NDIA modifies the Modified Monash Model classification of some locations. Where a location is surrounded by Remote or Very Remote areas then the NDIA classifies that enclave as a Remote area for planning and pricing purposes. The following Table sets out the enclaves that the NDIA has reclassified.

Pricing Arrangements in Regional, Remote and Very Remote Areas

In general, price limits are 40% higher in Remote areas and 50% higher in Very Remote areas. There is no additional loading applied for supports in Metropolitan areas, Regional Centres or Regional Areas. However, some different pricing arrangements do apply in Regional Areas (MMM4-5) as set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

When a support is provided directly to a participant, and the worker delivering the support is at the same location as the participant, the price limit that applies to the support is determined by the location of the participant at the time of service delivery. For example, if a participant living in a Remote location visits a provider to receive a service, the support is subject to the price limit that applies to that location - not the Remote price limit.

When a support is provided directly to a participant via telehealth, the price limit that applies to the support should, in general, be the price limit that would apply if the participant was receiving the support at the place that the person who is delivering the support is located at the time of service delivery. However, participants in Remote or Very Remote areas can agree that those price limits should apply to the support if they are satisfied that the support provides value for money.

When a support is not provided directly (for example, Non-Face-to-Face Support Provision or NDIA Requested Reports) then the price limit that applies to the support is the price limit that would apply if the participant was receiving the support at the place that the person who is delivering the support is located at the time of service delivery.

Claiming for Group-Based Supports

When a support item is delivered to more than one participant at the same time (a group of participants) then, unless the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits states otherwise, the price limit for each participant is the applicable price limit set out in the relevant support table divided by the number of participants in the group. Providers should make a claim for each participant using the relevant support item. Each claim should be for the total time of the support but is subject to the lower price limit as set out above.

Providers can only claim for supports that are related to the reasonable and necessary needs of a participant. Where a participant attends a group-based session then a provider should only claim for the time of more than one worker against that participant's plan if all those workers were involved in the direct support of the participant for the time claimed.

There are transitional arrangements in place for group-based supports in the Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category, see page 70.

Programs of Support

A provider of group-based supports in:

- Assistance in Shared Living Arrangements - Supported Independent Living section of the Assistance with Daily Life Support Category, or
- Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category, including Supports in Employment, or
- any of the Capacity Building Support Categories

can enter into an agreement with a participant for a "program of support", especially where the program is towards the achievement of a specified outcome. Under this approach, providers claim against the plans of all the participants who had agreed to attend an instance of support in the program of support as though they had attended (whether or not they did) - as long as the provider had the capacity to deliver the support. Supports delivered as part of a program of supports are not subject to the short notice cancellation rules.

Providers in Registration Group 0118 (Early Intervention Supports for Early Childhood) can include 1:1 supports in a program of support but only where these are provided in combination with group supports.

Programs of support can only be offered if the duration of the program is no longer than 12 weeks (unless specifically allowed for in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits; and participants are able to exit from the program of supports without cost, subject to a notice period of no more than two (2) weeks. Providers and participants can agree to a new program of support at any time.

Providers who offer programs of support must enter into an agreement with each participant specifying the program of support, including its length, exit rules and intended outcomes. These agreements must be consistent with this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

Providers cannot pre-claim for programs of support. Each instance of support in the program of support has to be delivered before the provider can claim for that instance of support.

Claiming for Centre Based Social, Economic and Community Participation Supports

When a support item (“the primary support”) in the Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category is delivered in a facility (Centre), by a provider in one of the following Registration Groups:

- High Intensity Daily Personal Activities (0104);
- Specialised Supported Employment (0133); and
- Group and Centre Based Activities (0136)

then the provider can claim an additional amount for the costs of running and maintaining the facility through the relevant Centre Capital Cost support item.

If the primary support is being delivered to a group of participants, then the provider can claim up to price limit of the relevant Centre Capital Cost support item in respect of each of the participants for each hour of the support.

When a support is delivered partially in a Centre and partially in the Community, and the Centre is available at all time during the support if required, then providers can claim up to the price limit for the relevant Centre Capital Cost support item in respect of each of the participants for each hour of the entire period of the support.

NOTE: These arrangements do not apply to providers who choose to use the transitional arrangements for group-based supports in the Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category, see page 70. The transitional price limits for these supports have the capital allowance built into them.

Centre Capital Costs

The Centre Capital Cost support items can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

These support items are subject to price limits as set out in the following Table.

| Item Number | Item Name and Notes | Unit | National | Remote | Very Remote |
|-----------------|---------------------|------|----------|--------|-------------|
| 04_599_0104_6_1 | Centre Capital Cost | Hour | $2.17 | $3.04 | $3.26 |
| 04_599_0133_5_1 | Centre Capital Cost | Hour | $2.17 | $3.04 | $3.26 |
| 04_599_0136_6_1 | Centre Capital Cost | Hour | $2.17 | $3.04 | $3.26 |
| 10_599_0133_5_3 | Centre Capital Cost | Hour | $2.17 | $3.04 | $3.26 |

Claiming for Establishment Fees for Personal Care/Participation Supports

These support items recognise the otherwise non-claimable costs that providers face in establishing arrangements with participants. They can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits

These support items are claimable by a provider who assists a participant with the implementation of their NDIS Plan, who has made an agreement with the participant to supply a minimum of 20 hours per month for three or more consecutive months of:

- Personal Care Supports - that is, supports in the Activities of Daily Living Support Category that are delivered by providers in the Registration Groups:
 - Daily Personal Activities (0107); or
 - High Intensity Daily Personal Activities (0104); or
- Participation Supports - that is, supports in the Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category delivered by providers in the Registration Groups:
 - Participation in Community, Social and Civic Activities (0125); or
 - Group and Centre Based Activities (0136); or
 - High Intensity Daily Personal Activities (0104) when delivered for community access or group supports; or
 - Specialised Supported Employment (0133).

Each provider can only claim an Establishment Fee in respect of a participant once across all plans. If a provider delivers services to a participant through more than one Registration Group or more than one Support Category they can only claim for one Establishment Fee, and only if they meet the other requirements set out above. More than one provider is able to claim an Establishment Fee against a given plan as long as each provider meets the relevant requirements.

These support items are subject to price limits as set out in the following Table.

| Item Number | Item Name and Notes | Unit | National | Remote | Very Remote |
|-----------------|---|------|----------|----------|-------------|
| 01_049_0104_1_1 | Establishment Fee for Personal Care/Participation | Each | $572.30 | $801.22 | $858.45 |
| 01_049_0107_1_1 | Establishment Fee for Personal Care/Participation | Each | $572.30 | $801.22 | $858.45 |
| 04_049_0104_1_1 | Establishment Fee for Personal Care/Participation | Each | $572.30 | $801.22 | $858.45 |
| 04_049_0125_1_1 | Establishment Fee for Personal Care/Participation | Each | $572.30 | $801.22 | $858.45 |
| 04_049_0136_1_1 | Establishment Fee for Personal Care/Participation | Each | $572.30 | $801.22 | $858.45 |
| 04_049_0133_5_1 | Establishment Fee for Personal Care/Participation | Each | $572.30 | $801.22 | $858.45 |

Claiming for Irregular SIL Supports

Irregular SIL Supports are intermittent or unplanned events that disrupt supports initially planned for in the SIL plan budget, via the Roster of Care. Examples of situations where Irregular SIL Supports would be required include a participant falling ill or the cancellation of a day program, so that participants are in their home and require SIL supports for a period that was not initially planned and rostered for.

Claims for Irregular SIL supports are made using the relevant support item, using the “Irregular SIL Support” option in the myplace portal.

SIL Providers are only permitted to claim from a participant's plan for Irregular SIL Supports if all of the following conditions are met:

- this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits indicates that providers can claim for Irregular SIL Supports in respect of that support item;
- the proposed charges for the activities comply with this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits;
- where the SIL activity does not sit within the definition of a Regular SIL Supports;
- the provider works with the participant and/or their nominee to explain why Irregular SIL Supports are required, and the other options available; and
- the provider has agreement from the participant and/or their nominee to claim for the support before a payment request is made (i.e. the service agreement between the participant and the provider should specify that Irregular SIL Supports can be claimed when required).

In contrast, Regular SIL supports (claimed as Direct Services) are considered as those planned for as part of a usual week in the SIL plan budget, via the Roster of Care – this includes weekday daytime, weekday evening, weekend, public holiday and overnight (either active or overnight) shifts.

The SIL Operational Guideline provides more detail about the types of services that are included and excluded from the provision of SIL supports.

Claiming for more than one worker or therapist

Sometimes a participant requires assistance from more than one worker or therapist at the same time. In these cases, the provider is entitled to bill for the time spent providing the support by all workers and therapists involved in delivering the support. Examples of cases where this may occur include:

- “shadow shifts” that allow new workers to be introduced to a participant who has complex individual support needs so that they can understand their support needs and patterns;
- supervision of, or specific training for, therapy assistants by the supervising therapist as part of the handover of the support delivery to the participant by the therapist to the therapy assistant;
- case conferences between therapists about the specific support needs of a participant.

Shadow Shifts

Shadow shifts may be claimed where the participant has complex individual support needs that are best met by introducing a new worker to the participant before it is reasonable that they commence providing the support independently - for example, where the specific individual support needs include very limited communication; behaviour support needs; and/or medical needs/procedures such as ventilation or Home Enteral Nutrition (HEN).

Where the individual would require shadow shifts to assist with the introduction of new workers, and this is the desired method by the participant or their family, the provider may claim for up to 6 hours of weekday support per year.

Supervision / Specific Training for Therapy Assistants

Level 1 Therapy Assistants can only deliver support under the direct supervision of a therapist. Level 2 Therapy Assistants can deliver supports under indirect supervision but may require specific training in the needs of the participant from the therapist before they take responsibility for the delivery of the therapy.

In these cases, it is appropriate for the provider to bill for the time spent by both the therapist and the therapy assistant. This arrangement can represent value for money for the participant compared to the alternative of all supports being delivered by the supervising therapists.

Case Conferences for Therapists

Therapists, especially in rural and remote areas, may benefit from a case conference with other therapists about the specific care needs of a participant. In these cases, it is appropriate for the provider to bill for the time spent by all therapists on the case conference.

Other Considerations

Supports must be Reasonable and Necessary

The NDIS provides funding to participants for supports and services aimed at increasing their independence, inclusion, and social and economic participation.

Supports funded by the NDIS need to:

- be related to the participant's disability;
- not include day-to-day living costs that are not related to a participant's disability support needs;
- represent value for money; and
- be likely to be effective and beneficial to the participant.

Providers should not claim for supports from a participant's plan where the support is not in line with the participant's goals, objectives and aspirations as set out in their plan or where the support is not reasonable and necessary. Providers should also not claim for supports from a participant's plan where the support is more appropriately funded or provided through other service systems. Further information on when a support is considered reasonable and necessary can be found on the NDIS website.

Medicare and insurance

Some elements of a participant's care may be covered by funds outside the NDIS. These expenses are commonly medical, including those covered by private health insurance or Medicare. These medical expenses are not funded under the NDIS, even if they are related to, or a symptom of, the disability. These expenses should be claimed under the relevant health care scheme or insurance policy. Some providers (e.g. therapists) may need to distinguish between the health services and disability supports that they provide to a single client, and make separate payment claims to, for example, Medicare and the NDIS.

Expenses related to Recreational Pursuits

Providers should not claim payment from participant's plans for:

- expenses related to recreational pursuits, such as event tickets for the participant, as they are not covered by the NDIS; or
- the cost of entry for a paid support worker to attend a social or recreational event.

Prepayments

In general, Registered Providers can only make a claim for payment once a service booking has been created and the support has been delivered or provided.

For higher cost supports, the cost of the support may be claimed in stages in some circumstances, and before the support is finally delivered to the participant.

Prepayments represent funds paid in advance of the provider delivering the agreed support to the participant. Sometimes providers require prepayment(s) as collateral and/or to cover their expenses in order to source, build or tailor the support to meet the participant's unique needs.

In general, prepayments should only be sought where a business will incur unrecoverable costs should delivery of the support to the requesting participant not proceed (e.g. a custom made support).

Prepayments are subject to all of the following conditions:

- The support item is an assistive technology (including vehicle modification), or a home modification;
- the support item value exceeds $1,500 or is custom made to address the participant's disability related requirements, and a valid quote has been provided and accepted by the participant (or their nominee);
- a service agreement between the provider and participant (or nominee) outlines the requirement of a prepayment (e.g. deposit) or milestone payments, in line with normal business practice; and
- the final payment of not less than 10% of the total cost, may not be claimed until the participant has received the support ready for use.

A participant is entitled to a refund of any balance of prepayment(s) less the actual unrecoverable expense incurred by the business to that point when supply is terminated. The participant remains fully entitled to their rights under Australian Consumer Law in all circumstances.

Prepayments can be claimed by providers for a support where that support is specifically identified as eligible for prepayments in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. Other supports may be eligible for prepayment where the NDIA has given prior written approval (including conditions) to the registered provider to claim for prepayments.

Subscription services

A provider may claim for a service agreed with a participant using a subscription model of payment. The participant is paying to be able to use that service (on the terms/hours agreed) for the period of the subscription.

Providers wanting to claim for a subscription based service must make sure that:

- a) A plain English service agreement has been accepted by the participant, that makes clear to the participant the service and its costs (including any extra fees), as well as reasonable exit conditions
- b) Subscriptions are charged for no more than one (1) month's service provision (paid at or before the start of the service period), unless the subscription fee for the longer period is less than $350 (for example $199 per year).
- c) There are no penalties (for example exit fees) should a participant wish to cancel a subscription (with reasonable notice) on or prior to the end of the paid subscription period.
- d) Invoices for the subscription to be paid, clearly describe the supports for the participant to be delivered/available during the subscription period. For monthly subscriptions, participant's may agree in writing to be billed quarterly (in advance of the quarter), but must be refunded any unused months if they cancel the subscription with due notice (as per point c. above).

Co-payments for Capital items, including Assistive Technology

Co-payments by the participant are not required. However, where a participant would like a customisation to a support or assistive technology that is not considered reasonable or necessary, they are required to pay for these themselves. These may include an aesthetic customisation to an assistive technology or modifications to a vehicle that are additional to the assistive components.

Other Fees and Charges

All registered providers must not add any other charge to the cost of the supports they provide to any participant, such as credit card surcharges, or any additional fees including any 'gap' fees, late payment fees or cancellation fees, unless otherwise permitted by this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. Participants are generally not required to pay exit fees, even when changing provider's part way through a plan. A core principle of the NDIS is choice and control for participants, allowing them to change providers without expense.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Many, but not all, NDIA supports provided to NDIS participants are GST-free. Further information about the NDIS and GST can be accessed on the Australian Taxation Office website. Providers should seek independent legal or financial advice if they require assistance with tax law compliance. If GST is applicable to a support, the price limit is inclusive of GST.

Special NDIS Pricing Arrangements

High Intensity Supports

A support is considered a High Intensity Support if the participant requires assistance from a support worker with additional qualifications and experience relevant to the participant's complex needs. The high intensity price limits may be considered when:

- frequent (at least 1 instance per shift) assistance is required to manage challenging behaviours that require intensive positive behaviour support; and/or
- continual active support is required due to high medical support needs (such as unstable seizure activity or respiratory support).

Level of Disability Support Worker

Some high intensity supports have differential price limits that depend on the skills and experience of the Disability Support Worker who delivers the support.

- Level 1 worker support items should be used if the worker who delivers the support is someone who has the skills and experience that would mean that they would be classified as a Social and Community Services Employee level 2 (below the maximum pay point) if they were employed under the Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services Industry Award 2010 (SCHADS Award).
- Level 2 worker support items should be used if the worker who delivers the support is someone who has the skills and experience that would mean that they would be classified as a Social and Community Services Employee level 2 (at the maximum pay point) or as a Social and Community Services Employee level 3 (at the minimum pay point) if they were employed under the SCHADS Award.
- Level 3 worker support items should be used if the worker who delivers the support is someone who has the skills and experience that would mean that they would be classified above a Social and Community Services Employee level 3 (at the minimum pay point) if they were employed under the SCHADS Award.

In general, the Level 2 price limit applies to most high intensity supports. However, if the particular instance of support is delivered by a worker who does not have the skills and experience to deliver a high intensity support then the Level 1 price limit should be applied. If the particular instance of the support is delivered by a more highly skilled or experienced worker then the provider can consider applying the Level 3 price limit, with the participant's prior agreement.

Temporary Transformation Payment (TTP)

A number of supports in the Assistance with Daily Living Support Category and the Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category are in the scope of the Temporary Transformation Payment (TTP). These supports have two support items, in line with the following example.

|-------------------|---|
| 01_011_0107_1_1 | Assistance With Self-Care Activities - Standard - Weekday Daytime |
| 01_011_0107_1_1_T | Assistance With Self-Care Activities - Standard - Weekday Daytime - TTP |

The price limit for each TTP item is higher than the price limit for the non-TTP item. The difference in price limits will be 4.5% of the standard price from 1 July 2021.

As with all supports, providers must also agree the price that they will charge for a support with the participant. The price for a support cannot be greater than the relevant price limit.

The TTP items can only be used by providers who are compliant with the TTP conditions (see below). Providers who meet these eligibility criteria are known as TTP providers.

All providers who claim for the TTP in 2021-22 must:

- publish their service prices prominently on their website, and make them available to participants, including participants who are not their clients, and the NDIA on request; and
- list their business contact details in the Provider Finder in the myplace portal and ensure that those details are kept up-to-date; and
- take part in a Financial Benchmarking Survey that is carried out for the NDIA in 2021-22.

In addition, providers who made a claim for the TTP in 2020-21 can only claim for the TTP in 2021-22 if they also took part in the Financial Benchmarking Survey that was carried out for the NDIA in 2020-21.

All providers who claim for a TTP support item are also required to acknowledge their compliance with the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits, including the TTP requirements, when submitting a payment request through the myplace Provider Portal.

Providers who made a claim for the TTP in 2020-21 and did not take part in the Financial Benchmarking Survey that was carried out for the NDIA in 2020-21 are not eligible to claim for the TTP in 2021-22. If any of these providers make a claim for a TTP support item in 2021-22 then they will be required to reverse the claim and replace it with a claim for the equivalent non-TTP support item.

If any provider makes a claim for a TTP support item in 2021-22 and does not take part in the Financial Benchmarking Survey that will be carried out for the NDIA in 2021-22 then they will be required to reverse the claim and replace it with a claim for the equivalent non-TTP support item.

Providers are reminded that Section 182 of the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 provides that if an NDIS amount is paid to a person who is not entitled for any reason to the payment of the NDIS amount then the amount of the payment is a debt due to the Agency.

Plan managers and the TTP

Plan managers are not responsible for ensuring providers are TTP compliant. They can accept the claim for a TTP support item by a registered provider as proof of TTP compliance. Plan managers are however required to inform the NDIA, when requested, which registered providers have made a claim for a TTP support item through the plan manager. Non-registered providers are not eligible for the TTP and plan managers should not use TTP line items to claim for services delivered by non-registered providers.

Disability-Related Health Supports

The NDIS will fund disability-related health supports where these supports directly relate to a participant's significant and permanent functional impairment and assist them to undertake activities of daily living. These supports are provided individually to participants and can be provided in a range of environments, including, but not limited to, the participant's own home.

Participants are not permitted to claim for health supports from their plans when those health supports do not relate to their disability and when they do not require health supports on a regular basis. Those health supports will continue to be provided by the health system. Additionally, if a participant's support needs become acute, that support should be provided in a hospital or another health setting by the relevant state/territory health care system or private health system and not be claimed from the participant's plan.

The list below provides an indication of the majority of disability-related health supports that may be required by NDIS participants; however, it is not an exhaustive list. Disability-related health supports are expected to assist in areas such as:

- Dysphagia: for participants who have trouble eating, drinking or swallowing on a daily basis.
- Respiratory: for participants requiring help with their breathing and maintenance of their respiratory health, including any associated care, comfort, planning or supports
- Nutrition: for participants requiring help with the way they eat or understanding the food they need.
- Diabetes: for participants who have daily problems with how much sugar is in their blood.
- Continence: for participants who need daily assistance with toileting (bladder and bowel).
- Wound & Pressure Care: for participants who need daily wound and pressure care (resulting from pressure wounds or swollen limbs).
- Podiatry: for participants who require help looking after their feet, ankles and lower limbs.
- Epilepsy: for participants who need daily help managing the way epilepsy affects the way their brain and nerves work.
- Botox and Splinting: It is unlikely Botox and splinting supports will be reasonable and necessary to include in a plan, as these are generally provided in a clinical setting.

Five types of disability-related health supports have been identified in the NDIS Support Catalogue:

- Provision of Disability-Related Health Supports by Disability Support Workers - these supports should be claimed using the standard Daily Personal Activities and High Intensity Daily Personal Activities support items;
- Assessment, planning and the provision of Disability-Related Health Supports by therapists - these supports should be claimed using the standard ECEI and Therapy support items;
- Assessment, planning and the provision of Disability-Related Health Supports by nurses - these supports should be claimed using the new nursing support items;
- Consumables related to Disability Related Health Supports - these supports should be claimed using the new Low-Cost or High-Cost Disability Related Health Consumables support line items; and
- Assistive Technology related to Disability Related Health Supports - these supports should be claimed using the new Disability Related Health Assistive Technology support line items.

Type of Nurse

An enrolled nurse is a person who provides nursing care under the direct or indirect supervision of a registered nurse. They have completed the prescribed education preparation, and demonstrated competence to practice under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law as an enrolled nurse in Australia. Enrolled nurses are accountable for their own practice and remain responsible to a registered nurse for the delegated care.

A registered nurse is a person who has completed the prescribed education preparation, demonstrates competence to practice, and is registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law as a registered nurse in Australia.

A clinical nurse is a more experienced and skilled registered nurse. Duties of a clinical nurse will substantially include, but are not confined to, delivering direct and comprehensive nursing care and individual case management to a specific group of patients or clients in a particular area of nursing practice.

A clinical nurse consultant is a nurse practicing in the advanced practice role. Advanced practice nursing is a qualitatively different level of advanced nursing practice to that of the registered nurse due to the additional legislative functions and the regulatory requirements. The requirements include a prescribed educational level, a specified advanced nursing practice experience, and continuing professional development. Nurses practising at an advanced level incorporate professional leadership, education and research into their clinically based practice. Their practice is effective and safe. They work within a generalist or specialist context and they are responsible and accountable in managing people who have complex health care requirements.

A nurse practitioner is an advanced practice nurse endorsed by the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia who has direct clinical contact and practices within their scope under the legislatively protected title 'nurse practitioner' under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law.

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Response

The Australian Government has enacted the Coronavirus Emergency Response Plan and the NDIA is taking necessary steps to prepare and support participants and providers during the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. The Agency is collaborating with the Department of Social Services, Services Australia and the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission as well as health agencies to deliver the NDIA's Pandemic Plan in line with the Government's Emergency Response Plan. Further information can be found at ndis.gov.au.

The Agency is responding to the COVID-19 pandemic through a number of temporary measures.

Temporary COVID Price Increases

The price limits for a number of supports are being temporarily increased nationally from 1 January 2022 until 30 June 2022, pending the outcomes of the 2021-22 Annual Pricing Review. The temporary price increase recognises that providers have to meet additional costs as a result of COVID, including the provision of PPE for support workers.

The temporary increase applies to supports in the Assistance with Daily Living Support Category and the Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category delivered by providers in the following Registration Groups:

- 0104 High Intensity Daily Personal Activities
- 0107 Daily Personal Activities
- 0115 Assistance With Daily Life Tasks In A Group Or Shared Living Arrangement
- 0120 Household Tasks
- 0125 Participation In Community, Social And Civic Activities
- 0133 Specialised Supported Employment
- 0136 Group And Centre Based Activities

The increases in price limits have been calculated by increasing the overhead allowance in the NDIS Disability Support Worker Cost Model by:

- 0.40 percentage points for Supported Independent Living Supports and Group Supports; and
- 0.25 percentage points for other eligible supports.

SIL Providers

Two temporary support items have been introduced to support participants living in Supported Independent Living who have additional needs because the participant:

- has been diagnosed with COVID-19 (until they are no longer infectious – as a guide, the National Management Guidelines state that this is generally for a period of up to 14 days); or
- is living in areas outlined in the Addenda to the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits and is:
 - is required by government or medical authorities to self isolate or quarantine; or
 - is required on the advice of a medical practitioner to self isolate or quarantine because they are displaying symptoms of COVID-19 or are suspected to have come into contact with a person suspected of having contracted COVID-19; or
 - is in isolation or quarantine while waiting for the results of a COVID-19 test or because of measures taken by government or medical authorities in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

These support items are being introduced temporarily. They can only be claimed during the periods specified in the Addenda to the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

These support items will cater to three scenarios for eligible participants:

- they continue to reside in the normal SIL accommodation;
- they are admitted to hospital; and
- they are relocated to alternative housing for isolation purposes or while transitioning into or out of hospital.

A single participant could move through all three scenarios over time, noting that a participant who is diagnosed with COVID-19 should only remain in their usual SIL accommodation if they self-isolate, have access to their own bathroom and do not come into contact with other residents or shared spaces.

Cleaning Services

Temporary support for eligible participants living in supported independent living arrangements and who require cleaning services to help prevent the spread of the disease. This support item can be used for a one-off professional deep cleaning of a residence of an eligible participant. The item is only claimable once per participant. See page 57 for more information.

Additional Supports

Temporary support for eligible participants living in Supported Independent Living arrangements (SIL) where additional supports are required by the participant because of COVID-19. The item can be claimed in addition to the usual SIL claim for the participant. The item recognises the additional costs of higher intensity support (staffing increase), Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), professional laundering, and any ancillary costs directly related to the participant's diagnosis. This item can only be claimed when additional costs are actually incurred and so would not be claimable if the participant was in hospital or in an Short Term Accommodation facility and the provider was not providing support to them. See page 57 for more information.

Rapid Antigen Testing for Support Workers in SIL

From 23 December 2021, a direct billing arrangement will operate to assist providers of Supported Independent Living supports with the costs associated with Rapid Antigen Tests undertaken to enable the provision of support to a participant.

Providers will be able to make a claim against this direct billing arrangement when a support worker is required to undergo a Rapid Antigen Test in order to be able to deliver supports to a participant. That is, a provider can only claim for this support if they would be unable to deliver a support to a participant (for example, through rostering other workers) without a support worker undergoing a Rapid Antigen Test.

In order to claim, providers:

- must incur the expense – that is, must have paid for the Rapid Antigen Test undertaken by the support worker;
- must be delivering a support item in the Assistance with Daily Life support category in the registration group – 0115 Assistance with Daily Life Tasks in a Group or Shared Living Arrangement.

Where the support worker is supporting a number of participants, then the cost of the Rapid Antigen Testing should be apportioned between the participants on a pro rata basis. The total amount claimable from the NDIS through this direct billing arrangement is up to $12.50 per Rapid Antigen Test.

This arrangement has been extended and will expire on 30 April 2022.

Rapid Antigen Testing for Participants

From 23 December 2021, NDIS participants who have Core funding are able to use the existing support item 03_040000919_0103_1_1 (Low Cost Disability-Related Health Consumables) to claim the cost of any Rapid Antigen Test where it is required to access their reasonable and necessary supports.

Participants are expected to purchase Rapid Antigen Tests at market rates. As a general guide, the cost of a Rapid Antigen Test is not expected to exceed about $12.50.

Personal Protective Equipment for Participants

NDIS participants who receive an average of at least one hour a day of face-to-face daily living supports are able to use the existing support item 03_040000919_0103_1_1 (Low Cost Disability-Related Health Consumables) to claim the cost of PPE that they use when their disability worker is supporting them.

If participants need to purchase face coverings or masks for use outside the home, this is still an everyday expense. NDIS funds cannot be used to pay for them.

Participants are expected to purchase PPE at market rates. As a general guide, the weekly cost of PPE is not expected to exceed $50 per week.

Deep cleaning

Support items have been temporarily introduced in areas outlined in the Addenda to the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits in response to the COVID-19 pandemic to address situations where a participant has a worker attending their home who later tests positive for COVID-19. These support items will allow the participant to arrange for a deep clean of their home following such an incident. This support does not apply to participants residing in SIL arrangements (see above). See page 58 for more information.

Participants who live in non-SIL arrangements also have access to additional Assistance with Daily Living (ADL) and Short Term Accommodation (STA) as needed, when quarantining or self-isolation is required.

This support item is being introduced temporarily. It can only be claimed during the periods specified in the Addenda to the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

Enabling COVID-19 Vaccination

This support can be claimed where providers have organised and registered their participants for a COVID-19 vaccination appointment/s offsite. This support can be claimed by providers of:

- 0104 High Intensity Daily Personal Activities
- 0106 Assistance in Coordinating or Managing Life Stages, Transitions And Supports
- 0107 Daily Personal Activities
- 0115 Assistance with Daily Life Tasks in a Group or Shared Living Arrangement
- 0125 Participation in Community, Social and Civic Activities

Providers can claim up to a fixed price of $150 per participant as a direct claim from the Agency once the participant is fully vaccinated. This amount is fixed at $150 total, regardless of how many offsite vaccination appointments are required by the participant to achieve full vaccination status.

This is an all-inclusive price that allows providers to organise the best approach for participants being vaccinated offsite. This may include organising the following:

- Administration to arrange vaccination appointments, including seeking consent;
- Transport both ways in a COVID safe manner; and
- Arranging appropriate staff to accompany to the appointment, including remaining with participants at the hub while the person has to wait through the sit down period.

In order to claim this payment, providers:

- must provide the NDIS number and date of birth of the participant that has been vaccinated;
- require agreement from the participant before organising a vaccination appointment; and
- if requested by the Agency, be able to provide third party evidence the vaccination took place (date, location, certificate etc.).

This support item is being introduced temporarily. It can only be claimed during the periods and for the areas specified in the Addenda to the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

Short Term Accommodation and Assistance (including the provision of respite care)

Standard support items

These support items provide integrated support for self-care, accommodation, food and activities in a centre or group residence for short periods. They recognise that, from time to time, participants may require temporary comprehensive supports that are different from their usual arrangements. These are non-typical days and may include Short Term Accommodation (STA) in a group-based facility. They may also include a period of respite, which aims to support ongoing caring arrangements between participants and their carers. STA/respite allows the opportunity for the participant to be supported by someone else whilst providing their carer with short term breaks from their usual caring responsibilities.

The support items include all expenses in a 24-hour period including assistance with self-care or community access activities, accommodation, food and negotiated activities. Typically, this type of support would be used for short periods of up to 14 days at a time (exceptions may be made). For longer-term arrangements, other options are likely to be more appropriate (e.g. Supported Independent Living or Medium Term Accommodation).

In cases where a participant will receive substantially less than 24 hours of assistance with daily personal activities, it may be appropriate for the participant and provider to negotiate a lower price than the maximum price specified in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits, based on the actual hours of support provided. This situation might arise, for example, if a participant enters a STA/respite facility in the evening, and exits again early the following morning. In addition, where a participant enters accommodation late in the day, it may be appropriate to claim the daily rate for the day of the week that the majority of the support is provided.

These support items can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

As well as direct service provision, these support items can be used to claim for

- Short Notice Cancellations.

These support items are subject to price limits as set out in the following Table. Different price limits apply depending on the Claiming for Time of Day and Day of Week that the support is delivered, and the ratio of staff to participants in the facility.

Additional hours support items

These support items are for additional support provided at the same time as a Short Term Accommodation (STA) support, where the participant requires 1:1 assistance with self-care activities in addition to the STA support. These support items can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

As well as direct service provision, these support items can be used to claim for

Medium Term Accommodation (MTA)

This support item covers the accommodation costs of Medium Term Accommodation. The support component of the care should be claimed separately. This support item recognises that there may be cases where a participant will require longer term transitional accommodation before moving into a more permanent home or arrangement (for example, after hospital discharge). Typically, MTA would be used for periods up to 90 days. Participants who stay in MTA are responsible for meeting their own food and everyday living costs from their own income rather than NDIS plan.

This support item can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

As well as direct service provision, this support item can be used to claim for

Individualised Living Options

These support items introduce new options and alternative ways of living for people with disability. Individualised Living Options (ILOs) are packages of support that are built as a result of holistically considering each individual's preferences, strengths, assets, support requirements, informal and community supports. An ILO is not determined by the home ownership or leasing situation or eligibility for Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) funding. An ILO is the support provided and not the accommodation itself. Further information can be found at the NDIS website.

Exploration and Design

This support item will help participants explore the Individualised Living Options paradigm and design an option suitable for themselves. Providers delivering this support item will:

- explore the vision of the participant for their future home and help all involved to understand the full range of options as to how a participant can be supported in the community;
- gain an understanding of a participant's strengths, with a focus on what they can do, and an understanding of how informal, formal and community supports will play a role in the participant's life, and build on this to design the individual support package;
- identify strategies to help the participant choose where to live, who to live with and how they are supported;
- find out what is possible and assess risks in the context of the participant's preferred way of living, and explore if there could be other options that might suit better; and
- design and make decisions with the participant and others about the options.

Depending on the circumstances, the exploration and design tasks may include assistance to locate suitable housing or linking with other funded or community or mainstream services.

Community, Social and Recreational Activities

This support item is designed to enable providers to claim reimbursement for the costs of enabling a participant to independently engage in community, social and recreational activities when costs of participation exceed an affordable level and without, the participant would be at risk of social isolation. Participants may use this funding for activities such as camps, vacation and outside school hours' care, course or membership fees.

This support item can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

This support item is not subject to price limits. It should only be used to recover the costs of the participant's attendance at the community social and participation activities.

See page 15 for further information on how to claim for support items that are not subject to a price limit.

Supports in Employment

While some participants, with supports offered through DES or employer reasonable adjustment, will successfully maintain work, others will need higher intensity, often daily, support delivered in the workplace to maintain employment. These supports have typically been available in an Australian Disability Enterprise. They can also be used in a range of employment settings including: private, government or not for profit organisations; a social enterprise or similar environment; self-employment or a micro-business; or a family run business.

Specialised Supported Employment

These support items are for participants who are employed and who are less independent in performing their work tasks or need frequent prompting and coaching to stay on track, communicate with others, or manage their behaviours.

Supports may be provided one to one or within a group-based setting, complimenting existing or expected employer supports, and claimed according to the intensity and frequency of supports delivered to achieve employment goals. Supports can include:

- on the job assessments related to the impact of a person's disability on their ability to work;
- job customisation;
- on-the-job training and intermittent support with daily work tasks;
- direct supervision and/or group-based support to enable meaningful participation at work;
- physical assistance and personal care delivered in the workplace;
- supports to manage disability-related behaviour or complex needs at work; and
- non face-to-face activities that are directly related to supporting a participant's employment.

These support items can be delivered to individual participants or to groups of participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. If a support item is delivered to a group of participants then the price limit for each participant is the price limit set out in the following Table divided by the number of participants in the group. Providers should make a claim for each participant using the relevant support item. Each claim should be for the total time of the support but is subject to the lower price limit as set out above.

As well as direct service provision, these support items can be used to claim for

Transitional Funding Arrangements

This support item can be used by current Australian Disability Enterprises (ADEs) registered as Specialised Supported Employment providers. This support item will allow providers to continue to claim under the pre-1 July 2020 ADE pricing arrangements until 31 December 2021, as agreed under the pricing transition arrangements.

This support item is not subject to a price limit. However, ADE providers that choose to use pre-1 July 2020 pricing arrangements during the transition period can only claim this item at the Disability Maintenance Instrument (DMI) or Average Outlet Price (AOP) they currently have in place for each current or new supported employee.

Transitional Arrangements for Community and Centre Based Group Activities

Transitional arrangements are in place for group-based supports in the Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category until 30 June 2022.

The transitional arrangements mean that providers delivering group or centre based supports in the Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation Support Category who require time to transition to the new group-based pricing arrangements set out on page 28 can choose to continue to use the pricing arrangements and support items that were in place in 2019-20.

The transitional arrangements have price limits that are inclusive of Non-Face-to-Face Support Provision and Centre Capital Costs, and so these components cannot be claimed separately by providers using the transitional support items.

A provider can either continue to use the transitional pricing arrangements for group and centre based supports or they can choose to switch to the new pricing arrangements for group and centre based supports.

A provider must use the same approach (transitional or new) for all the group and centre based supports that they deliver.

Once a provider commences to use the new pricing arrangements they may no longer use the transitional pricing arrangements.

School Leaver Employment Supports (SLES)

School Leaver Employment Supports (SLES) are capacity building supports for students transitioning from school to employment. They are available during the final months at school and continue post school exit. These supports are designed to plan and implement a pathway to inclusive employment, focussing on capacity building for goal achievement. With appropriate supports, it is expected that the majority of SLES participants will transition to the Disability Employment Service (DES) to undertake the job seeking, placement and post placement support phases of their pathway. These supports will have an individualised approach, with a strong emphasis on "try and test" work experience opportunities, (generally in work places that would pay award wages). Capacity building should focus on hard and soft skill development. Supports, more generally, should facilitate positive experiences that contribute to developing an understanding of work capability and confidence to step into employment. SLES should also help inform the level and nature of future supports needed to obtain and sustain employment.

This support item can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. It is not subject to price limits. See page 15 for further information on how to claim for support items that are not subject to a price limit.

Therapy Supports (over 7 years)

These support items provide therapeutic services to participants (over 7 years). In the NDIS, therapy supports are for participants with an established disability, where maximum medical improvement has been reached, to facilitate functional improvement. For people who access the Scheme as 'early intervention' NDIS participants, reasonable and necessary supports are likely to be a blend of medical and disability therapies, but should be predominantly disability therapy supports. Therapy in this context must be aimed at adjustment, adaption, and building capacity for community participation.

Maintenance care can be claimed against a participant's plan, where the primary purpose is to provide ongoing support for a participant in order to maintain a level of functioning including long term therapy/support required to achieve small incremental gains or to prevent functional decline,. In general, maintenance therapy that is reasonable and necessary should be delivered by carers who are or can be trained in this if required. Where a participant has a medical condition or disability that requires a particular regime to maintain functioning of a body part, or to slow the deterioration of a medical condition or body part, then these support items can be used to deliver reasonable and necessary training for non-qualified personnel to assist a participant, as part of usual daily care. These support items cannot be used for massage, delivered directly to impact a body part or body system, as these supports are more appropriately provided and funded by the health system.

These support items can also be used for the assessment, planning, and delivery of Disability-Related Health Supports where these supports directly relate to a participant's significant and permanent functional impairment and assist them to undertake activities of daily living.

These support items can be delivered to individual participants or to groups of participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits. If a support item is delivered to a group of participants then the price limit for each participant is the price limit set out in the following Table divided by the number of participants in the group. Low Cost AT to support Capacity Building support delivery

This support item was created in response to the increased need for online appointments (web, telehealth or application based approaches) given the suspension of face-to-face services due to the social distancing regulations. It can be used to purchase low cost smart devices.

This support item can be delivered to individual participants subject to the rules set out in this NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

This support item is not subject to price limits. See page 15 for further information on how to claim for support items that are not subject to a price limit.

Participants can use their existing NDIS funding to purchase an item if:

- it will maintain funded NDIS supports like a program, therapy or requirement (for example physiotherapy or Auslan interpreting provided via video conferencing), and
- the provider of supports has confirmed in writing the device is necessary to continue supports and services while maintaining physical distancing requirements, and
- it is the lowest specification that will maintain funded supports, and
- they do not already have the item, another suitable item or access to the item, and
- the item has not been funded by another service system (such as education), and
- the item or circumstances are not specifically excluded.

Participants should not spend more than $750 on electronic devices needed to maintain existing services. In the case of computer tablets or iPads for telehealth and care or participating in online video classes, advice from AT specialists is that most NDIS participants will not need more than a standard tablet, which costs no more than $600.

The following items and circumstances are excluded from this policy:

- The item does not relate to the participant's disability. A participant cannot purchase a smart device for entertainment, education, or gaming. A participant cannot purchase fitness equipment not previously used or recommended by the participant's provider or therapist in existing funded supports.
- Devices with extra specifications above the basic model. A participant can only purchase a device that is fit for purpose for maintaining NDIS funded supports. The NDIS will generally fund the lowest specification. Top of the range specifications can only be justified if they are required as a result of a person's disability. For example, Therabands and a fitness ball may be sufficient to maintain an exercise program rather than a gym set. In the case of computer solutions, only participants who require 'head tracking' and other solutions are likely to need a large screen tablet or iPad, most other participants would only require an entry-level tablet. You should consult a specialised AT provider to advise you on any more complex products before making a purchase.
- Smart phones, tablets, or iPads with mobile connections cannot be purchased. Video conferencing and other functionality participants will need to access supports is available on tablets, iPads, or computers that are in scope and connect using Wi-Fi.
- Participants cannot purchase multiple devices. A single item can be purchased, where the participant does not already own or have access to a device that would meet their needs to continue to access supports and services. This includes if the participant already owns or has access to a suitable device through:

- existing individual or family ownership
- employment (for the purpose of working remotely)
- education (for the purpose of studying remotely)
- Replacements for loss or damage will generally follow the existing NDIS AT replacement policy (noting that replacement of items will generally not apply once this policy ends).
- Internet connection and data, these are considered ordinary living costs (utilities) and are excluded from this policy.
- This policy will not fund applications or software, however apps that have been specified and approved in a plan can be paid for with NDIS funding.
- Additional hardware or accessories, other than standard protective cases will not be funded by the NDIS. This includes: screen protectors, additional or back up chargers, selfie sticks, connection cables

Additional hardware and accessories may be purchased if they relate to using the device because of the participant's disability, such as mounting on a wheelchair for a person with limited grip or rugged case where related to behaviour issues.
