
Posted on:

26 August 2019

Transcript for 'The Brike project'

ILC grant recipient, The Brike Project, aims to create sustainable, open employment opportunities for people with disability by through the development of an innovative piece of assistive technology - the Brike.

Related Stories and videos

Ned's working from home during COVID-19, where he continues to support the inclusion of young people with disability.

Ned leads inclusion at the Hawks

18 June 2020

Participant story - Assistive Technology

Haya's set for a bright future

12 June 2019

Technology firm Xceptional is creating opportunities for people with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) to participate in work.

Inclusive hiring makes way for Xceptional talent

14 July 2020

More stories and videos