
Posted on:

30 July 2019

Transcript for 'NDIS at the Source Kids Disability Expo'

The Source Kids Disability Expo is a fantastic opportunity for parents and families to come together, talk to providers and explore services and supports available in their community to best meet the goals for their child.

Related Stories and videos

Sarah says disability expos are also great connecting attendees to other like-minded people, resources, and ideas.

Sarah has built a better lifestyle attending disability expos

23 March 2022

Consultant provides valuable insights about how to connect with people who live with disability

Peter's life experience helps providers improve disability supports

12 July 2023

Changing the lives of teenagers with hearing impairments.

Western Sydney disability program is Hear For You

17 September 2019

More stories and videos