

31 December 2016

The Board overseeing the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) will be expanded from 1 January 2017 to ensure it has the disability service, financial management, corporate governance and insurance-based expertise needed to guide the $22 billion scheme through its critical three year expansion to 2019-20.

Read the media release from Minister for Social Services, Christian Porter.

Related articles

Investment to boost businesses and jobs in disability sector

Date

11 November 2016

NDIA Board receives NDIS Independent Pricing Review Report

Date

30 December 2017

Board announces new CEO of NDIA

Date

19 July 2017

Read more news