31 May 2018

Queenslanders with disability will benefit from improved access to support and services announced today.

The Federal Government will provide more than $233 million for people with disability and children with developmental delay and disability in Queensland as part of the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) rollout.

Carers Queensland, APM, and Mission Australia will be funded to provide Local Area Coordination (LAC) services to people with disability aged seven and above.

Related articles

Improved support for children with disability in NSW

Date
31 May 2018

More support for people with disability in Northern Territory

Date
18 May 2018

Improved support for hearing impaired

Date
21 June 2018
Read more news