31 August 2020

Submissions to the Review of Supported Independent Living (SIL) Price Controls Issues Paper are now open.

The Issues Paper outlines:

- the detail of the SIL Cost Model Review,
- the areas where the NDIA is seeking feedback
- details about how to make your submission.

The SIL Issues Paper will:

- examine the cost drivers and differences that arise in the delivery of attendant care in a shared living arrangement,
- seek perspectives on the appropriateness of the assumptions and parameters used in the Disability Support Worker Cost Model for attendant care supports in shared living arrangements and,
- seek to refine the assumptions and parameters for setting SIL price limits.

Results of consultation sessions and submissions will inform recommendations presented to the NDIA.

To access the Review of SIL Price Controls Issues Paper or for more information, please visit the SIL Price Controls Review page.

Related articles

NDIA invites submissions on Western Australia Market Review issues paper

Date
25 February 2019

Submissions open for home and living demonstration project

Date
27 September 2021

SDA Pricing Review consultation paper released

Date
2 November 2022
Read more news