2 July 2021

NAIDOC week celebrates the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

To celebrate, we're sharing some incredible stories of NDIS participants.

Stories

- In the remote far north Kimberley, Kelvina is receiving support | NDIS
- Alex is riding high again after dream comes true, thanks to NDIS
- Jackie paints a new path during COVID to achieve her dreams
- Indigenous women connect families across the Kimberley to NDIS

Videos

Kimberley Supports is a network of Aboriginal led organisations working in collaboration to support Aboriginal people and families to access the NDIS and utilise their plans. These Kimberly Supports videos tell the stories of NDIS participants they work with:

- Josh Button is working with NDIS and his independent support workers are assisting him to develop his artistic talents.
- How NDIS is supporting Alex Fernandez
- Remote Community Connectors .

The NAIDOC 2021 theme – Heal Country! – calls for stronger measures to recognise, protect, and maintain all aspects of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture and heritage.

To find out how you can celebrate NAIDOC week visit the NAIDOC website where you will find an event calendar, event planning ideas and a poster to print and display at home, your workplace or within your community.

Related articles

NAIDOC week 2022

Date
29 June 2022

Category

- Media release from the Minister
- News

NAIDOC Week a time to celebrate and reflect on how the NDIS supports First Nations peoples

Date
13 July 2024

Celebrate International Day of People with Disability

Date
30 November 2020
Read more news