20 December 2023

The Australian Government is conducting a pilot to better understand what works for NDIS participants when looking for and starting work.

The pilot is open to NDIS participants who want to work, do not have mutual obligations and are in the following locations:

- Australian Capital Territory
- Darwin
- Outer Eastern Melbourne

Eligible participants can discuss their interest with a DES provider or their Local Area Coordinator.

For more information about the pilot, visit the Department of Social Services website .

Related articles

Category

- News

Australian Disability Enterprises (ADE) to open employment research

Date
14 April 2023

CEO Address to the National Disability Services Annual CEO forum

Date
20 November 2019

$19.6m to help Australians with disability realise their employment goals

Date
31 July 2019
Read more news