Latest Quarterly Report now available

Minister for the National Disability Insurance Scheme, the Hon Stuart Robert MP, released the Quarterly Report to disability ministers Q1 2020-21. The Quarterly Report is a summary of how the Scheme performed from 1 July 2020 to 30 September 2020.
Date
11 November 2020

Australian Government delivering on NDIS promise

Minister for the National Disability Insurance Scheme, Stuart Robert, today released the latest NDIS Quarterly Report (Q1 2020-21) which shows the NDIA is on track to deliver against the Participant Service Guarantee announced in August.
Date
11 November 2020

NDIA welcomes release of Autism CRC report on early intervention

The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) has welcomed a report into early intervention approaches for young people with autism.
Date
9 November 2020

Expressions of interest now open to join the SDA Reference Group

The NDIA is welcoming expressions of interest (EOI) from people who would like to be members of the next SDA Reference Group.
Date
5 November 2020

Changes to the NDIS Independent Advisory Council

Minister for the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), Stuart Robert, today announced the appointment of Dr Leighton Jay to the Independent Advisory Council (Council) to the NDIS.
Date
4 November 2020

Delivering the NDIS: Improving access for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Communities

The Australian Government is providing $5.9 million over the next two years to the National Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation (NACCHO) to strengthen NDIS services within Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

Date

29 October 2020