Category

- Media release
- News

Five people charged as investigations continue into alleged Commonwealth fraud of up to $235 million after AFP-led period of action

The Australian Government’s Fraud Fusion Taskforce (FFT) has charged five people with fraud-related offences during a coordinated national operation targeting entities which allegedly took $235 million in fraudulent Australian Government Payments and Programs (AGPPs) claims.
Date
4 November 2026
Category

- Media release
- News

Sydney man charged for alleged role in $1.8 million NDIS fraud

A Sydney man, 36, has been charged over his alleged role in a sophisticated $1.8 million fraud, following an investigation by the Australian Government Fraud Fusion Taskforce (FFT).
Date
9 October 2026
Category

- Media release

Trusted local NDIS support expands across remote Australia

More First Nations people with disability in remote communities will get trusted local, face-to-face help to understand and make the most of their NDIS supports closer to home.
Date
7 October 2026
Category

- Media release
- Media release from the Minister

First phase of Thriving Kids supports start today

Families of children with extra developmental needs can now access expanded information and supports, as part of the Australian Government's Thriving Kids program.
Date
1 October 2026
Category

- Media release
- News

New price limits set for NDIS supports

As the new statutory decision maker for NDIS price limits, the Minister for Disability and the National Disability Insurance Scheme, Mark Butler MP, has made the first NDIS pricing determination under changes introduced through the NDIS Amendments (Securing the NDIS for Future Generations) Act 2026.
Date
24 September 2026
Category

- Media release
- Media release from the Minister

Stronger NDIS integrity controls save billions

Stronger NDIS integrity systems put in place by the Australian Government have delivered $2.1 billion in savings and benefits through stopping non-compliant payments and protecting participant funding from misuse.
Date
23 September 2026