104 Results for 'change in situation'
Page

Investment in specialist disability accommodation (SDA)

Investment in SDA, like any other type of investment, carries risks. Prospective investors should carefully assess the information and investment proposals provided to them, complete due diligence and seek independent legal and financial advice when deciding whether to invest.
Read this page
Page

Safe and respectful interactions

Our services are respectful, inclusive, accessible and safe. You can help us provide a high standard of service by treating others with courtesy and respect.
Read this page
Page

How to prepare for a check-in

Steps you can take to be ready for your check-in.
Read this page
Page

What is supported independent living (SIL)

Supported independent living (SIL) is a type of NDIS support to help you live as independently as possible. It is not SIL if you only need a few hours of support a day or week, or if you choose and manage your own support workers through directing, planning and rostering your own supports.
Read this page
Page

Guide to providing supported independent living (SIL)

Here's a guide to understanding the role of supported independent living (SIL) providers.
Read this page
Page

Glossary

NDIS concepts in Auslan and a glossary of commonly used words and phrases.
Read this page
Landing page

Life transitions

We have support available to help you during different life stages you may experience.
Read this page
Page

How to prepare for a plan reassessment

Take these steps to get the most out of your plan reassessment.
Read this page
Page

What is an eligibility reassessment

A process we use to check if you're still eligible for the NDIS.
Read this page
Page

How to ask for a change to your plan

If your situation changes, so can your plan.
Read this page