
28 Results for 'consent forms '

Page

What is consent

Consent is giving permission for someone to share your information, or act on your behalf.

Read this page

Page

How to give consent

Learn how to give consent to share your information, or for someone to act on your behalf.

Read this page

Landing page

Sharing information

Learn what information we can share and how you can access your information.

Read this page

Page

How to update your name, pronouns or gender

Take these steps to let us know if you have changed your name, pronouns or gender.

Read this page

Page

What information we can share

There are many ways you can ask for information from us. The information we can share is governed by the NDIS Act.

Read this page

Page

How to complete an information access request

What to do when you want to access your information.

Read this page

Page

How to view plans in the my NDIS provider portal

When providers are recorded as my providers, they can access participants' plan information that can help them do their job.

Read this page

Page

What is an access request form

It's a form you can complete to apply for the NDIS.

Read this page

Page

What is a statutory scheme

A statutory scheme is a government service that provides care and support to people injured at work or on the road.

Read this page

Page

How to share your plan with a provider

Follow these steps to share your plan with your providers.

Read this page

1 2 3 >>> » Last »