

70 Results for 'functional capacity '

Page

What is a functional capacity assessment

It's an assessment that gives us more information about your disability.

Read this page

Page

What are capacity building supports

Capacity building supports help you develop skills and build independence.

Read this page

Landing page

Types of assessments

Information about specialised assessments for NDIS support.

Read this page

Page

How to help your patient to access the NDIS

GPs and healthcare professionals can follow these steps to help people access the NDIS.

Read this page

Page

What are the early intervention eligibility requirements

Early intervention can help to reduce the functional impacts of your impairment.

Read this page

Page

What is supporting evidence for your patient

The information and documents you need to give us if your patient wants to apply to the NDIS.

Read this page

Page

Market monitoring and intervention

Find out more about NDIS roles and responsibilities, our market approach, market monitoring and market intervention projects.

Read this page

Page

What are examples of disability evidence

There are a range of disability evidence types we use to help decide if you should be an NDIS participant.

Read this page

Page

Guide to working as an allied health provider

Learn about supporting NDIS participants as an allied health provider.

Read this page

Page

How to determine whether your patient is eligible

Understand whether your patient may be eligible for NDIS support.

Read this page

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 > >> » Last »