

12 Results for 'speech pathology'

Page

Market monitoring and intervention

Find out more about NDIS roles and responsibilities, our market approach, market monitoring and market intervention projects.

Read this page

Page

What are therapy supports

Evidence-based supports to help you build or maintain your skills and independence.

Read this page

Page

Guide to NDIS support budgets

Your NDIS funding is included in your plan in support budgets. Here's what means.

Read this page

Page

How coordinated funding proposals work

Here are some scenarios and case studies to help explain the different ways CFPs can work.

Read this page

Landing page

FOI disclosure log

The disclosure log lists information which has been released in response to an FOI access request.

Read this page

News

South Australia first to deliver NDIS through public sector employee-led mutual

Federal Minister for Families and Social Services, the Hon Paul Fletcher MP, and South Australia Minister for Human Services, Michelle Lensink, today announced South Australia Government's Child and Youth Services (CYS) has become the first public sector staff in Australia to form their own employee-led mutual to deliver NDIS for ECEI services throughout the state.

Read this news item

Story

Kylie on a mission to break down barriers

Sydney disability advocate Kylie Scott's calls for a more inclusive society are only growing stronger after speaking at the United Nations headquarters in New York.

Read this story

News

A range of market intervention approaches help participants access the supports they need

To ensure participants can access the supports they need, the NDIA monitors the market and trials a range of intervention approaches to address market gaps across Australia.

Read this news item

Story

Willow connects with others during COVID, using Key Word Signing and other creative non-verbal cues

At not quite three-years-old, Melbourne toddler and NDIS participant Willow Beyer is a tenacious fighter and whenever she has the chance, a social butterfly.

Read this story

Story

Indigenous artist well on a road to recovery after stroke

Doomadgee NDIS participant and local indigenous artist, Barry Johnny, is back painting after a stroke halted his creativity, but he's grateful regular supports have him back doing what he loves best and well on the road to recovery.

Read this story