
121 Results for 'transport'

Page

Student transport - in-kind supports

During the first few years of the NDIS, states and territories will continue to fund and provide student transport. If your state or territory has approved your access to student transport then you will continue to use this service. You don't need to use your NDIS plan funds to pay for it.

Read this page

Page

Transport funding

Please note this information is related to participant transport arrangements and does not relate to travel for providers of supports.

Read this page

Landing page

Housing and living supports and services

Information about housing and living supports, including specialist disability accommodation, supported independent living, individual living options, assistive technology and home modifications.

Read this page

Landing page

Supports funded by the NDIS

Information about the types of supports that the NDIS may fund for participants.

Read this page

Landing page

NDIS and other government services

All Australians with disability have access to a range of other government services including education, health, employment, justice and family support.

Read this page

Page

From the CEO 2020

November 2020 25 November update includes: Have your say on proposed changes to the NDIS: Access and eligibility policy for independent assessments Planning policy for personalised budgets and plan flexibility ECEI Implementation Reset project consultation report Supporting young children and their families early, to reach their full potential. February 2020 5 February update includes: Bushfire response Tune Review Transport costs Annual Pricing Review Provider payments NDIA organisational structure Recent media Honours

Read this page

Page

Commonwealth, state or territory statutory schemes (SATSS)

What is a SATSS? A Commonwealth, state or territory statutory scheme of insurance, or SATSS, is a mainstream government service that provides ongoing care to people injured at work or in a transport accident. If you're eligible, a SATSS can fund supports for ongoing care relating to your injury. To find out more, you will need to contact a SATSS directly. To help you, a list of SATSS is included below.

Read this page

Page

From the CEO February 2020

Welcome to my first update for 2020. I hope you were able to spend time with your loved ones over the break. February update includes: • Bushfire response • Tune Review • Transport costs • Annual Pricing Review • Provider payments • NDIA organisational structure • Recent media • Honours

Read this page

Page

Housing

The NDIA is working toward breaking down barriers and enabling people with disabilities to choose where and with whom they live. Learn how housing and living arrangements can influence our quality of life.

Read this page

Page

Plan budget and rules

The three types of support budgets that may be funded in your NDIS plan are explained: core supports budget, capacity building budget and capital support budget.

Read this page

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 > >> » Last »